

Mr. W. T. Jennings, C.E., and Mr. Alan Macdougall, C.E., were sworn, and testified to the correctness of their First and Second Reports.

Resolved, That the said Engineers, Messrs. Jennings and Macdougall, be discharged from further attendance, subject to recall at any time by telegram.

The accounts of the Engineers were then read and approved.

An application being made by Mr. N. K. Connolly, for the return to him of certain private books and papers deposited with the Clerk of the Committee, and having no relevancy to the Enquiry before the Committee, and a letter from the Accountants in reference thereto being read, it was Ordered, That the said application and letter be referred to the Sub-Committee appointed to examine the books of account.

Mr. John Heney, Ottawa, was sworn, examined and discharged from further attendance.

Mr. H. J. Chaloner, Quebec, was sworn and examined; he was requested to prepare a certain statement from the books produced by Hon. Thomas McGreevy, and to produce the same at the next meeting of the Committee; during his examination 2 memoranda were filed and marked as Exhibits "M16" and "N16."

Mr. A. P. Bradley, Secretary, Department of Railways and Canals, was re-called and examined as to crib-work on the St. Charles Branch of the Intercolonial Railway. He was then discharged.

Mr. C. Baillairge, Quebec, was sworn, examined and discharged from further attendance.

Mr. Geoffrion, Q.C., filed original writ in case of George Beaucage versus Hon. Thomas McGreevy, which was marked Exhibit "P16." By permission of the Committee a certified copy was substituted for the original, and the latter returned to Mr. Geoffrion.

Mr. George Beaucage, St. Alban, P.Q., was sworn and examined, and ordered to be in attendance on Tuesday next; during his examination two letters from J. L. Archambault, Q.C., to witness, were read and filed as Exhibits "Q16" and "R16."

Mr. Charles McGreevy was re-called and examined. Three papers showing quantities and items of Cross-wall work were filed and marked as Exhibits "S16," "T16" and "U16."

On motion of Mr. Tarte, it was Ordered, That a summons be issued for the attendance of Mr. J. L. Archambault, Q.C., of Montreal, on Tuesday next.

At the request of Mr. Stuart, Q.C., it was Ordered, That a summons do issue for the attendance of Dr. J. A. Rodier, Montreal, for Tuesday next.

Ordered, That Mr. Martin P. Connolly be discharged from further attendance.

Mr. Martin P. Connolly having submitted a claim for remuneration for work performed for the Committee, it was Ordered, That the said application be referred to the Sub-Committee appointed to examine the books of account.

The Committee then adjourned till Tuesday next, at 10.30 a.m

Attest.

WALTER TODD,
Clerk of the Committee.
