

all this without
to the burdson of ole—then, sir, I
bmit the facts
he hon. gentle-
e answer would in a country so
ing positio-ns in statesmen, who rancement, who
ts of a foreign actual fact, to
hem bread and
; I venture to
country fairly
g remark, the
old, will leave
who may choose
ntry, in a posi-
n, every true-
proud. (Loud