

Chairman, W. H. Malkin, Chris Spencer, C. Woodward and W. H. Leckie, is composed of the strongest and ablest business men in the Province. This committee has formulated a plan of raising the finances. The money is being raised by voluntary subscription of any amount and by the sale of membership tickets in the People's Prohibition Movement. Details will be supplied upon application to the Financial Secretary, 703 Rogers Bldg., Vancouver, B. C.

ORGANIZATION

To reach 40,000 or 50,000 voters throughout the Province of British Columbia is a tremendous task, owing to the immense territory and scattered communities. No body of workers will do it without thorough organization. A committee in every polling district with a worker for every twenty voters will do it. This we must have.

DISTRICT AND LOCAL COMMITTEES

The convention in August, 1915, appointed an Organization Committee to "organize and conduct the campaign." This committee has formulated a plan of organization which has been worked out in detail in some parts of the Province. The Province has been divided into thirty-nine districts, the boundaries of which conform to those of the electoral districts. A central or district committee is to be organized in each one of these districts. Sub-district committees must then be formed in every one of these thirty-nine districts, taking in every town and community in the district. Officers of these sub-district committees automatically become members of the district committee; and that district committee, composed of these sub-
