

CHAPTER V.

Lance Exercise.

Instruction with the Lance on Foot—Mounting with the Lance— Exercise on Horseback—Position of the Lance for Attack in Line —Attack and Defence.....	57
---	----

CHAPTER VI.

Instruction of the Troop and Squadron.

Introductory Remarks—Dressing—Marching to the Front—Inclin- ing—Passaging and Reining Back—Filing—Wheeling—Threes —Standard—Paces—Formation of the Troop—Formation of the Squadron—Order—Marches and Formations by Threes and Files —Marches to the Flanks, Front, and Rear, by Threes and Files— Formations to the Front, Flanks, and Rear, from Threes and Files—Formations to the Right about—Countermarch—Diminu- tion and Increase of Front—Diminishing the Front from the Halt—Diminishing the Front on the Move—Increasing the Front from the Halt—Increasing the Front on the Move—Advance of the Squadron—Instruction of the Squadron for Regimental Move- ment—Instruction of Young Officers—Linking Horses—Dis- mounted Service.....	68
---	----

CHAPTER VII.

Instruction of the Regiment.

Terms and Formation of Manœuvre—Distances and Intervals— Formation of the Regiment—Posts of Officers—Commands—Gen- eral Rules—Markers and Dressing—Formation for Review— Marching Past—March in Line—The Charge or Attack—Chan- ges of Front or Position—Taking up Points of Formation—In- version of the Line—Close Column—Skirmishing—Advanced, Rear Guards, and Patrols—Picquets—Flags of Truce—Foraging —Alarm Posts.....	104
--	-----

SUPPLEMENTARY CHAPTER,

On the Management of the Horse, the great importance of Stable Duties, and attention to all things connected therewith.....	135
--	-----