

Chancellor of the said College, to act and be as a Member of the said Council in the place and stead of the member so dying, or so suspended, or removed, or incapacitated, as aforesaid, and the appointment of such new member of the said Council shall be communicated to the Provincial Legislature through the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or person administering the Government for the time being at their next session; and it shall be lawful for that branch of the Legislature by which the person dying or suspended, or removed, or incapacitated, as aforesaid, was appointed, either to confirm the said temporary appointment made by the Council aforesaid, or to appoint another, as such branch of the Legislature shall think fit.

6. And be it enacted, etc., That no meeting of the Council shall be or be held to be a lawful meeting thereof, unless nine members, at the least, be present during the whole of every such meeting and that all questions and resolutions proposed for the decision of such College Council shall be determined by the majority of the members of the Council present, including the vote of the Presiding Member; and, that in the event of an equal division of such votes, the Member presiding at any such meeting shall give an additional, or casting vote.

7. And be it enacted, etc., That any Member of the Council may, at any time, be suspended or removed by a joint resolution of the two branches of the Provincial Legislature.

8. And be it enacted, etc., that it shall and may be lawful for the said Council of the said College, from time to time, to nominate and elect so many Professors, Tutors and Lecturers in the several Arts, Sciences, and matters of learning, as shall to them seem fit and necessary for the system of education in the said College.

9. And be it enacted, etc., That the Chancellor, President, Professors, Tutors, Lecturers, Graduates, Under Graduates, Officers and Servants of the said College, and every person holding any situation of honour or trust in the same, shall be subject to all and every of the Rules and Ordinances of the said College, made and provided according to this Act.

10. And be it enacted, etc., That the said Council of the said College shall have power and authority to frame and make rules and ordinances touching and concerning the peace, welfare and good government of the said College, the studies, lectures, exercises and degrees in Arts and Faculties and all matters regarding the same, the duties of the President of said College; the number, remuneration and duties of the Professors, Tutors and Lecturers thereof; the management of the revenues and property of the said College; the salaries, stipends, provision, and emoluments of and for, the President, Professors, Tutors, Lecturers, Scholars, Officers and Servants thereof; the number and duties of such Officers and Servants, and also touching and containing any other matter or thing which to them shall seem good, fit, and useful, for the well being and advancement of the said College; and also, from time to time, by any new Rules or Ordinances to revoke, renew, augment or alter all, every or any of the said rules, as to them shall seem meet and expedient.

Provided always, That the said Rules and Ordinances or any of them shall not be repugnant to the laws and statutes of the said Province of Upper Canada or this Act; provided also that the said Rules and Ordinances shall be subject to the approbation of the Chancellor of the said College for the time being, and shall forthwith transmitted to the said Chancellor for that purpose.

11. And be it enacted, etc., That the said College shall be deemed and taken to be an University, and shall have and enjoy all such and the like privileges, as are enjoyed by the Universities of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and, as far as the same are capable of being had or enjoyed, by virtue of this Act. And that the students in the said College shall have liberty and faculty of taking the Degrees of Bachelor, Master and Doctor, in the several Arts and Faculties, at the appointed times; and shall have liberty within themselves of performing all scholastic exercises for the conferring of such Degrees, in such manner as shall be directed by the Rules and Ordinances of the said College.

12. And be it enacted, etc., That no religious test or qualification whatever shall be required of, or appointed for any persons admitted or matriculated as scholars within the said College, or of persons admitted to any Degree in any Art or Faculty therein, whether such degree be conferred in Law, Physic or Divinity or other Art or Science.

13. And be it enacted, etc., That the President, Professors, Tutors and Lecturers of the said College and all persons admitted therein to the Degree of Master of Arts, or to any Degree in Divinity, Law or Medicine, or other Art or Science, and who, from the time of such their admission to such degree shall pay the annual sum of twenty shillings lawful money of Upper Canada, for and towards the support and maintenance of the said College, shall be and be deemed, taken and reputed to be Members of the Convocation of the said University, and, as such members of the said Convocation, shall have, exercise and enjoy the right and privilege of electing a Chancellor of the said University, which Chancellor, upon such election, shall have, exercise and enjoy for the term of four years next after such election, such rights and powers as shall, from time to time, be conferred by any Rule or Ordinance made as aforesaid, under and by virtue of this Act.
