MUNICIPAL CONVENTION.

GREAT DAY AT HAVELOCK.

Mayor Suggests to Aid, Cox That a Welcome Be Tendered.

The delegates who will attend the Municipal Convention here next week will be given an opportunity to mingle pleasure with business. Yesterday His Worship the Mayor addressed a letter to Mr. Cox, chairman of the Reception Committee, pointing out that representatives from all over the province would be in attendance and suggesting that the opening proceedings take place in the Council Chamber on the evening of Wednesday, Aug. 28, when a welcome will be extended, the program to include music and other entertainment. Subsequent meetings could be held in the Council Chamber or any of the committee rooms at the City Hall. The Exhibition directors have invited the delegates to attend the evening entertainment at the Exhibition grounds, and the Mayor suggests some special street car trips and perhaps a picnic luncheon at High Park if the weather permits.

Object of the Conference. A large number of circulars are being sent out from the Mayor's office to the representatives of various municipalities in reference to the coming Municipal Convention. The circular says in part: "The primary object of the conference will be to arrange for a municipal union for common action in defense of municipal rights and the interests of citizens against the encroachments of great corporations, through Parliament, the legislature and otherwise. Other subjects of common interest and advantage from a municipal point of view will come up for discussion, to be handled at the conference or by the proposed union. Among these will be a plan for improving the credit of the municipalities in each province or in the Dominion."

Mr. Wilfrid's Movements. Ottawa, Aug. 21.—Mr. Wilfrid Laurier is here to-morrow for Arthursburg, N.S. He will remain there until Monday, when he goes on to the Toronto Fair.

Woman's Cause. A woman, suffering from nervousness and sleeplessness, writes: "I have been suffering from nervousness and sleeplessness for some time. I have tried many remedies, but nothing has helped me. I have heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I have bought a box. I have taken them for a few days, and I feel much better. I am sleeping better, and my nervousness is gone. I am very grateful to Dr. Williams for his kind and effective medicine."

Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restless sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Expeller is pleasant, sure and effective. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you.

The decline of marriage is going to be a very bad thing for the country.

A clergyman who has been studying his congregation remarks that the number of unmarried women in it is constantly increasing.

Furthermore, the number of marriages he has been called on to solemnize is decreasing year by year, and he has been trying to discover the reason or reasons.

He finds that lack of social intercourse has much to do with it. Few of the young men, comparatively speaking, attend church nowadays, and hence do not meet the girls to whom they are attracted.

The villages and towns gravitate toward the cities, and leave the girls behind to become old maids, he says.

But there is a cause above these things. As has often been said, the girls of today are not willing to join with a young man "for better or for worse," and start out with him to build up a home and a fortune.

The bride of today demands a luxurious outfit to start with, and, of course, the pace must be maintained.

The young woman may not be altogether to blame. Sometimes the parents stand in the way when a suit is poor, whereas the bride is to be allowed to wear the train, the villages and towns gravitate toward the cities, and leave the girls behind to become old maids, he says.

The young man of today are not by any means angels of perfection, and, especially in the cities, develop a fondness for amusements which takes away all their spare time.

Instead of economizing, they are always short of funds, and often in debt as much as possible. Because they cannot keep up the pace of those who have inherited wealth or have been fortunate in business, they will not marry.

The young people of both sexes are over-ambitious to "shine" in society, while their fathers and mothers were content to live quietly and economically until an income had been secured equal to the emergency.

There are many who think greater simplicity in life would be better than the present extravagance, but they are not ready to make the sacrifice.

The lavish expenditure of money is "good for trade." There always will be differences of opinion, but one thing is sure, marriage is not as popular as it once was.

While we in Ontario grumble at Quebec outsiders in gain of population, this very marriage question may be brought into notice in that connection.

The French-Canadians marry more freely than the English-speaking people, and more new homes are established. Try to rub it out as you may, the fact is there, that a country's population depends largely on the homes built up, and a steady increase of home-born people is the surest and best indication of a thriving nation.
