

THE BIG STORE

ADAMS SAYS THIS IS THE WEEK TO BUY CARPETS

You had better follow his bidding—you will make money if you do and get a choice from some of the newest and handsomest "rolls" in the Carpet Room—Cash or Credit—Easy Payments.

- $1.25 "Axminsters" for 79c
40c Oilcloth for 28c
$1.50 Japanese Rugs $10.90
$4.25 Wool Family Blankets $3.58
$1.10 White Bed Quilts for 67c
50c Cocoa Mats for 29c

Pictures

150 only Pictures—in large, medium and small sizes—assorted subjects—fitted with handsome gold frames—golden oak or forest green frames—these pictures are sold regularly at $1.00, $1.50 and $2.50—November "cut-price" sale. 48

THE ADAMS FURNITURE CO., LIMITED City Hall Square.

JOHN FERGUSON SPEAKS

Continued From Page 1.

Liberals of the town expressing their disapproval. Spasmodic Effort. The indignation has somewhat subsided there is still a good deal of discussion of the affair and the belief is widespread that the dismissal of Mr. Ferguson is only a part of a spasmodic effort to get the department in order to appease the temperate folk. The new official is Mr. J. McKie and he is expected to take office on Monday. Mr. McKie will probably make a good official.

Mr. Ferguson's statement is given without embellishment. "I was appointed license inspector for Ontario on Oct. 8, and occupied the position until Oct. 8. On the Friday before that date I got a letter from the License Department stating that Mr. Stratton would like to see me in his office on Monday or Tuesday following. I went up on Monday and was shown into the office of Mr. Stratton, who shook hands with me and said that he wanted me for a job and that I was going to make a man of me. He then handed me a list of names of individuals and the Conservative press about the way the law is being enforced. I'm not going to stand it any longer. I'm going to dismiss the license inspectors who have not been doing their duty. I'm going to dismiss the license inspectors who have not been doing their duty. I'm going to dismiss the license inspectors who have not been doing their duty."

Mr. Stratton remarked that he had called me up for this before, and I said: "You called me up when I had information that you were going to dismiss me for a second offence and I said that I would not do it. You called me up when I had information that you were going to dismiss me for a second offence and I said that I would not do it."

Mr. Stratton remarked that he had called me up for this before, and I said: "You called me up when I had information that you were going to dismiss me for a second offence and I said that I would not do it. You called me up when I had information that you were going to dismiss me for a second offence and I said that I would not do it."

Mr. Stratton remarked that he had called me up for this before, and I said: "You called me up when I had information that you were going to dismiss me for a second offence and I said that I would not do it. You called me up when I had information that you were going to dismiss me for a second offence and I said that I would not do it."

PAID TO DESTROY HATS RAY CROWN WITNESSES

F. Quigge Said to Have Confessed to a Detective That He Got $45 for it.

Brookville, Nov. 12.—F. Quigge, an ex-employee of the Union Hat Works, who was remanded to jail last week, appeared before the magistrate to-day and was committed for trial on the charge of destroying the property of his former employer.

Two witnesses gave evidence for the Crown, one being Harold Earle, an employee of the hat works, and the other being Molly of the Canada Secret Service. Their evidence went to show the prisoner confessed to them that he had been paid $45 by C. J. Altman, an ex-employee of the Union Hat Works, to destroy the property of his former employer.

C. J. Altman, who is also under arrest, appeared before the magistrate to-morrow. The case is creating a great deal of interest, as the Hat Works Company was given only one year ago, and left St. Johns, Que., to establish a factory here.

The second concert by the Creators had last night, when a Wagner program was given, was noticeable for the very large number of music teachers and students present. The band will give a return engagement Saturday afternoon and evening, at 2.30 and 8.15. The programs are:

- March—"Columbus"
Overture—"The Sorcerer's Apprentice"
March—"The Sorcerer's Apprentice"
Overture—"The Sorcerer's Apprentice"
March—"The Sorcerer's Apprentice"
Overture—"The Sorcerer's Apprentice"

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

"In the Palace of the King" will be the attraction at the Grand week. This is the play in which Miss Victoria Woodhull is appearing. The production is with Miss Woodhull, and the production is with Miss Woodhull, and the production is with Miss Woodhull.

"The Charity Nurse," a new melodrama, will be the attraction at the Grand week. This is the play in which Miss Victoria Woodhull is appearing. The production is with Miss Woodhull, and the production is with Miss Woodhull.

"The Charity Nurse," a new melodrama, will be the attraction at the Grand week. This is the play in which Miss Victoria Woodhull is appearing. The production is with Miss Woodhull, and the production is with Miss Woodhull.

"The Charity Nurse," a new melodrama, will be the attraction at the Grand week. This is the play in which Miss Victoria Woodhull is appearing. The production is with Miss Woodhull, and the production is with Miss Woodhull.

"The Charity Nurse," a new melodrama, will be the attraction at the Grand week. This is the play in which Miss Victoria Woodhull is appearing. The production is with Miss Woodhull, and the production is with Miss Woodhull.

"The Charity Nurse," a new melodrama, will be the attraction at the Grand week. This is the play in which Miss Victoria Woodhull is appearing. The production is with Miss Woodhull, and the production is with Miss Woodhull.

"The Charity Nurse," a new melodrama, will be the attraction at the Grand week. This is the play in which Miss Victoria Woodhull is appearing. The production is with Miss Woodhull, and the production is with Miss Woodhull.

"The Charity Nurse," a new melodrama, will be the attraction at the Grand week. This is the play in which Miss Victoria Woodhull is appearing. The production is with Miss Woodhull, and the production is with Miss Woodhull.

"The Charity Nurse," a new melodrama, will be the attraction at the Grand week. This is the play in which Miss Victoria Woodhull is appearing. The production is with Miss Woodhull, and the production is with Miss Woodhull.

PHILIP JAMIESON—"CLOTHIER TO THE PEOPLE"—YONGE AND QUEEN STREETS.

Wage to Your Order

An $18 Fall Suit for $12.95

This year's suit sensation will eclipse in genuine worth all previous efforts on our part. We have planned an event in our Custom Tailoring Department that will be talked of the country through. We intend to take orders on Saturday for

200 Suits at 12.95

The unprecedented value offered will guarantee us that many orders in the day.

The Suits will be made up in exactly the same way, with the same care and same trimmings as if you paid the full price.

Fine Imported and Domestic Tweeds in a handsome collection and new and snappy patterns, and variety enough to suit every taste.

We buy this cloth direct from the mills, and have tailoring facilities unequalled in this city.

The Queen Street Window Display will give you an idea of the fabrics—our guarantee will insure you a perfect fit. There is no need whatever for you to pay more than 12.95 for your new Fall Suit, made to your order.

Our Custom Tailoring Department is ready to satisfy you promptly, and an increased staff of carefully selected tailors await your orders.

Remember we will take orders for 200 SUITS to-morrow—will you be one of them?

LEAVE YOUR ORDER TO-MORROW!

BETTER OFF AS WE ARE.

I.C.O.C.D.V. Discuss English vs. American Government.

The first of a series of debates to be held by the Inter-Catholic Club debating Union took place last night in the school room of St. Basil's Church and proved a great success.

Choir and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

PHILIP JAMIESON—"CLOTHIER TO THE PEOPLE"—YONGE AND QUEEN STREETS.

Wage to Your Order

An $18 Fall Suit for $12.95

This year's suit sensation will eclipse in genuine worth all previous efforts on our part. We have planned an event in our Custom Tailoring Department that will be talked of the country through. We intend to take orders on Saturday for

200 Suits at 12.95

The unprecedented value offered will guarantee us that many orders in the day.

The Suits will be made up in exactly the same way, with the same care and same trimmings as if you paid the full price.

Fine Imported and Domestic Tweeds in a handsome collection and new and snappy patterns, and variety enough to suit every taste.

We buy this cloth direct from the mills, and have tailoring facilities unequalled in this city.

The Queen Street Window Display will give you an idea of the fabrics—our guarantee will insure you a perfect fit. There is no need whatever for you to pay more than 12.95 for your new Fall Suit, made to your order.

Our Custom Tailoring Department is ready to satisfy you promptly, and an increased staff of carefully selected tailors await your orders.

Remember we will take orders for 200 SUITS to-morrow—will you be one of them?

LEAVE YOUR ORDER TO-MORROW!

BETTER OFF AS WE ARE.

I.C.O.C.D.V. Discuss English vs. American Government.

The first of a series of debates to be held by the Inter-Catholic Club debating Union took place last night in the school room of St. Basil's Church and proved a great success.

Choir and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

PHILIP JAMIESON—"CLOTHIER TO THE PEOPLE"—YONGE AND QUEEN STREETS.

Wage to Your Order

An $18 Fall Suit for $12.95

This year's suit sensation will eclipse in genuine worth all previous efforts on our part. We have planned an event in our Custom Tailoring Department that will be talked of the country through. We intend to take orders on Saturday for

200 Suits at 12.95

The unprecedented value offered will guarantee us that many orders in the day.

The Suits will be made up in exactly the same way, with the same care and same trimmings as if you paid the full price.

Fine Imported and Domestic Tweeds in a handsome collection and new and snappy patterns, and variety enough to suit every taste.

We buy this cloth direct from the mills, and have tailoring facilities unequalled in this city.

The Queen Street Window Display will give you an idea of the fabrics—our guarantee will insure you a perfect fit. There is no need whatever for you to pay more than 12.95 for your new Fall Suit, made to your order.

Our Custom Tailoring Department is ready to satisfy you promptly, and an increased staff of carefully selected tailors await your orders.

Remember we will take orders for 200 SUITS to-morrow—will you be one of them?

LEAVE YOUR ORDER TO-MORROW!

BETTER OFF AS WE ARE.

I.C.O.C.D.V. Discuss English vs. American Government.

The first of a series of debates to be held by the Inter-Catholic Club debating Union took place last night in the school room of St. Basil's Church and proved a great success.

Choir and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than that of England, and were successfully opposed by W. H. McGuire, B.A., and J. McCarthy of the Catholic Students' Union.

Mr. Ferguson, second vice-president, occupied the chair in a decisional subject, while Rev. Dr. Tracy, J. J. Seitz and T. W. O'Connor acted as judges and an iron vote was cast and delivered with much force, so that the judges experienced some difficulty in reaching a decision.

While they were discussing the merits of the speakers, Mr. Tibbott entertained the audience with a recitation, and short talks were given by E. V. O'Sullivan, hon. president, and J. G. O'Donoghue. The next meeting will be held at St. Clement's Church on Nov. 23, and the discussion will be on the necessity of free trade within the empire.

DeLocher and C. DeLocher of the Catholic Club supported the proposition that the United States system of government was better than