"I Leave My Reputation to the Jury of Country"

Hon. Mr. Emmerson's Statement TEAMSTERS WANT on Outcome of Fredericton Case.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, June 26 .- "I leave my reputation to the great jury of the country at large."

This was the statement of the Hon. against the Fredericton King Edward Hotel. He is on his way to Virginia, and will leave Toronto do. tonight. He is here on private business today.

In regard to his libel suit and the happenings which led up to it Mr. Emmerson had little to say.

"I am not troubling about it at all," he said casually. "When the court ruled that any paper could publish what it liked about public men, so long as it believed what it published, I decided not to bother. I have no further interest in what they are doing The Second Baseman of Toronto in Fredericton."

"It is like butting your head against a stone wall. I am satisfied so far as the preliminary examination is conperned, for they certainly failed to prove the ridiculous charge that I was ejected from a hotel with two women of the Toronto Eastern League ball of ill-repute. I am willing to leave the team, who assaulted Umpire Conway
