Some of The Canadians Who Have Shed Their Blood For Right and Justice

Capt. J. L. Duval, St. John, N. B., wounded in the battle of Langemarck.

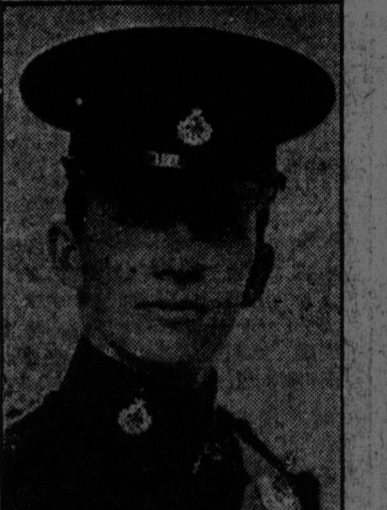

Col. D. S. Watson, of Quebec, whose regiment suffered heavily in the great fight of the Yser Canal.

Lieut.-Col. W. S. Buell, of Brockville, Ont., with the Fourth Battalion reported wounded at the battle of Langemarck.

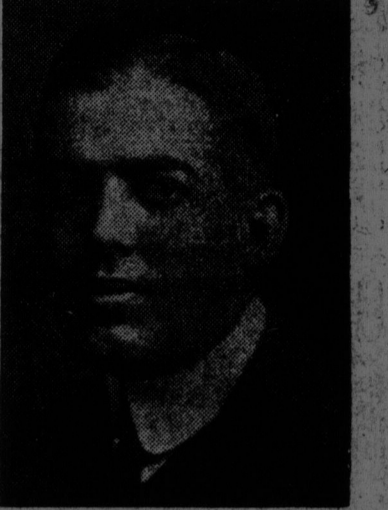

Capt. Gerald Lees (Killed)

Lieut. Otis Whelan, Ottawa, wounded in the battle of Langemarck.

Capt. H. B. Scharnmidt, of the Seventh Battalion, Vancouver.

Lieut. A. R. Bell, 10th Battalion, Second Brigade, Winnipeg, seriously wounded in the great battle of Langemarck.

Of the seven Canadians whose pictures are here shown all except Captain Gerald Lees were wounded in fighting for the King. Captain Lees was killed.

British Drive Off Attacking Huns

Repulse Them at Hill No. 60 and Near St. Julien

London, May 3.—A British official statement dated May 3 says: "At 7 p. m., May 1, the Germans attacked Hill No. 60, south-east of Ypres, and last evening they attacked in the neighborhood of St. Julien. These attacks were both repulsed. We lost no ground, and we inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy in spite of the fact that he again used poisonous gases emitted both from tubes in the trenches and from especially manufactured shells.

Germans Again Use Poisonous Gases—Threat of Invasion of Switzerland if Italy Goes to War—Enemy Submarines Are Active

London, May 3.—A British official statement dated May 3 says: "At 7 p. m., May 1, the Germans attacked Hill No. 60, south-east of Ypres, and last evening they attacked in the neighborhood of St. Julien. These attacks were both repulsed. We lost no ground, and we inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy in spite of the fact that he again used poisonous gases emitted both from tubes in the trenches and from especially manufactured shells.

ITALY GOES TO WAR

Paris, May 3.—As soon as Italy declares war, Germany will invade Switzerland with two army corps, occupying Zurich and the country around it. This assertion is made positively in the Liberte. Information from Berlin shows the German plan as follows:

GERMAN SUBMARINES ACTIVE

Aberdeen, Scotland, May 3.—Travelers today declare that a German submarine sunk two trawlers within fifty miles of Aberdeen on Sunday. The crew, it is believed, lost their lives. It would appear as though the submarine was active in the Aberdeen fishing fleet. In addition to sending two to the bottom, it chased three others for twenty miles. As a patrol boat appeared the submarine submerged.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stewart, director of meteorological service.

Synopsis — The barometer remains high over Northern Canada while there is an increasing disturbance south of Nova Scotia, and another moving towards the Great Lakes from the westward. Rain continues in the maritime provinces and Quebec, and the weather is fair in all the other provinces.

Still Rain

Martime—Fresh to strong east and northeast winds, unsettled and cool, with occasional rain today and Tuesday. New England forecasts—Showers tonight and Tuesday, moderate northeast winds.

THE DAY OF MOURNING

(A. M. Belding) In yonder shady grove the happy birds are calling. Aiders and herons the rippling stream; Whispering winds and showers, and shafts of sunlight falling, Wake earth from winter's dream. Beds will open again and earth be bright with flowers, Blooms they loved in fields their childhood knew.

SOME GERMAN LIGHT CRUISERS OFF BELGIUM

Not Powerful Enough For Effective Bombardment

ENGLISH BLOCKADE-FIRM

French Minister of Marine Says It Would Be Dangerous For Germans to Try to Force it—Cheerful About Dardanelles

BURIED TODAY

The funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Whorton took place this morning from her late residence, Main street, to St. Peter's church where requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. E. Walsh, C.S.S.R.

KASER WELL, BUT LOOKS OLD

London, May 3.—Emperor William and Prince Henry of Prussia, his brother, were reported at Antwerp at the end of last week and inspected the harbor fortifications and the submarine yards. They left for Luxembourg. The few persons who recognized the Kaiser say he looked well, but aged.

LETTER FROM P. H. SHEAR

A letter from Fred H. Shear, of this city, from somewhere in France dated April 15, says he was then in the best of health. He wrote that he hoped the war would end before very long, and added—"I will not be sorry if it is."

First Hand Tale of Atrocities Committed By The Germans

Refugees Reach Toronto—One Woman Tells of Her Father Being Murdered Before Her Eyes—Six Hundred Villagers Killed

Toronto, May 3.—Three men, one of them wounded, four women and seven children, arrived in Toronto last night to the care of Archbishop McNeill. They are Belgian refugees. What is probably the first authentic story told at first hand, in Canada, by an actual eye-witness of atrocities in Belgium, was told by Mme. Philomene Justine, a daughter of a Belgian merchant, who was murdered by the Germans before her eyes. She was living in the little village of Arceat. Although the inhabitants of the village were consumed by the men, including her father, were needed in the latter's garden and shot down and bayoneted by the Germans. There had been absolutely no interference with the German occupation. The care of the village, which was destroyed, was taken over by the Germans.

SUN ALMOST A STRANGER TO US

The Rain Keeps up, or Rather Keeps Coming Down—Some Speculation

Amateur weather prophets are busy arguing whether the rain is to continue without any possibility of change until May 9 or May 12. The moon will change into the last quarter on the sixth and some weather sharps maintain that this may bring a change in conditions. "Never has it been a question of the moon as an observer and not as a prophet, stands aside from any argument as to what the weather will be more than a day or so in advance.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

A very bad piece of sidewalk near the C. P. R. track, Milford, was effectively repaired yesterday by several officials who faced the inclement weather to oblige the public in a manner that deserves more than passing credit. The work was a great necessity and should have been done some days ago but the personal attention of the officials was hardly expected in a matter such as this.

STRICKEN AVEZZANO AGAIN IS SHAKEN

Avezano, Italy, May 3.—Since the last great earthquake, the shocks have continued with more or less frequency. This morning the vibrations were so great that they caused alarm among the whole population, who are camping in the fields owing to the fact that almost the entire town had been levelled.

RUDDER CHAIN BROKE

The steamer Majestic met with an accident this morning while en route to the city from the Washademoak. After passing Grand Bay she broke her rudder chain and had to be towed to her berth in Indian town. The accident is not a serious one, and repairs will in all probability be completed in time for her to run on schedule time.

OFFICIATED HERE

His Grace Archbishop Casey of Vancouver, officiated at mass in the chapel of the Good Shepherd Monastery, Waterloo street, on Sunday.

EARLY ELECTION IS THE ATTITUDE OF ROGERS

Public Works Minister Does Not Give Date But His Remarks Are Significant—Some Early Flag Waving

Montreal, May 3.—Addressing the Liberal-Conservative Association of Montreal today, Hon. Robert Rogers indicated unmistakably the early approach of a general election, though no date was mentioned. Mr. Rogers violently criticized the action of the opposition during the last session, and particularly the opposition press which, he said, had descended to "the very lowest possible level."

IS ST. JOHN MAN DRINK HAMPERS

Private Alexander W. Walsh of Saskatoon Among Missing at Front

In today's list of missing is the name of Private Alexander W. Walsh, of Saskatoon. He is a brother of J. D. Walsh, of North End, and George Walsh of Public Landing. He was a Boer War veteran and was living with his mother and one brother in Saskatoon when this war broke out, and he at once enlisted for active service. All his old friends will hope that he will turn up again safe and sound.
