MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The return of Hon. J. A. Calder to Ottawa tomorrow from New York, where he went to meet Sir Robert Borden, is expected to bring with it news that the premier feels unable, because of ill health, to continue in office. A caucus of government supporters will be held in about a week.

An improvement in working conditions for girls and women is to be asked of the Ontario government by a delegation of Toronto residents. Their plea is for a minimum wage of $14 a week.

Congress at Washington yesterday refused to pass an appropriation of $1,000,000 to prevent smuggling of liquor from Canada into the United States. One of the congressmen said that as long as there was a demand for it nothing could stop the smuggling of liquor into the country.

The coastal steamers Kinburn and Stella Maris reached Halifax yesterday, disabled through their propellers having been stripped in the ice.

A young man who gave his name as Frank Payzan was arrested in Quebec on Saturday on suspicion of forgery. He had checks in his possession totalling a sum of $85,000.

Sir Arthur Currie addressed two meetings in Ottawa on Saturday, the first a gathering of the I. O. D. E., the second

SUNLIGHT SOAP

Imitated—never equalled

There is as much difference between Sunlight Soap and its imitations as there is between sunlight and artificial light. Why? Absolute purity with superior cleansing powers—more real soap for your money—you get them in Sunlight Soap.
