

MRS. DUNHAM OF CARLETON DEAD

Had Entered Upon Her 102nd Year

ILL SEVERAL WEEKS

Previous to That Was Able to Sew and Knit Without Use of Glasses—Had Lived in Reign of Six British Sovereigns

One who was probably the oldest resident of St. John, being in the 102nd year of her age, Mrs. Elizabeth Dunham of Carleton, passed away today about 12.30 at the residence of her son, W. O. Dunham, 9 Dufferin Row, West End, after an illness of several weeks.

Ever since her birth Mrs. Dunham had resided in the West Side, her father, Joseph Ponsford, a native of Birmingham, England, having settled in Carleton in the early years of last century.

Quite naturally she was able to tell very interesting tales of the old days of the West End. She had the happy experience of being a great-grandmother, and among her descendants are five children, thirty-one grandchildren, fifty-four great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

MRS. DUNHAM always had been a staunch adherent of the Church of England and for many years had been a member of St. Jude's church in Carleton. She had lived under the reigns of six sovereigns—George III., George IV., William IV., Victoria, Edward VII., and George V.

The children who are living today are: Mrs. R. Mosher, of Worcester (Mass.); Mrs. Joseph Ponsford, of South Dakota; Mrs. J. Webb, of Hamilton (Me.); George Dunham, of Waterloo, Iowa; and Whitney O. Dunham, of Carleton.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

MILK INSPECTION

The board of health is holding a special meeting this afternoon in connection with the inspection of the local milk supply.

The annual inspection of the city and residential districts of St. Martin's and Lancaster parishes will commence next Monday.

Relief Fund Is Nearly Depleted

Money Contributed For Sufferers in St. John's Big Fire of '77—Less on Hand Than Was Needed in Distribution Last Year

The annual meeting of the St. John Relief and Aid Association is being held this afternoon and from the reports which will be presented it appears that the object for which the society was formed has been nearly accomplished.

At the time of the fire in 1877, relief money poured in from all quarters and the society was then formed and money invested to pay the sufferers so much each year as long as the fund lasted and this work has so far been well accomplished.

Following are the reports to be submitted at the meeting:

Balance consists of: Bonds in Bank of Nova Scotia, $2,000.00; Cash in Bank, $15.00; Cash in hands of Secretary, $7.45.

ST. GEORGE ON THE ROUTE

The steamer St. George, of the St. John-Digby service, made her first trip of the season this morning. The Yarmouth went off the route after her run on Saturday night and left immediately for Halifax, where she will go into dry dock for a thorough overhauling.

THE FOUNTAIN AT WORK

The fountain has been turned on and the grass is beginning to show a tint of green. The gardeners are still at work fitting up the flower beds.

SAW NINETEEN DRUNKEN MEN

Saturday Between Charlotte and Brussels Streets

MAGISTRATE'S STATEMENT

Given Another Chance, But He Fails—Interference With Policeman Brings Liability of Heavy Penalty

There was a full bench of prisoners this morning and the magistrate asked if any had been arrested between Charlotte and Brussels street on Saturday evening.

Andrew Irvin, sentenced to fourteen months in jail a few months ago for habitual drunkenness, was allowed out by the magistrate last night in order to give him another chance, but he was again arrested yesterday morning at 4 o'clock.

Another was sentenced to two months in jail with hard labor for drunkenness. Stewart Campbell was charged with interfering with the police. He pleaded guilty. Police Constable Saunders said that a group of loafers were standing near Elliott's alley at Haymarket square and they sneaked at him as he went by.

Robert Crawford was fined this morning for driving on the wrong side of Mill street on last Friday. The fine was allowed to stand.

ARREST OF MARK CAREY

Circumstances Detailed in the Police Court—Policeman Attacked

The police court was crowded this morning with spectators interested in a case against Mark Carey. He was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant sworn out some time ago charging him with having on his person liquor for sale without having a license.

Lucas was seen for the first time since by Detective Lucas yesterday afternoon in Fairville and Lucas advised the arrest with the assistance of two men who were called upon to assist, but not before Lucas was cut in several places.

E. S. Rime has been engaged as counsel for the prisoner. The charge of violently resisting the police, which was also brought against Carey, was taken up first. Detective Lucas told of making the arrest, and said that he saw Carey in Lancaster avenue yesterday afternoon. Carey started to run and he followed him into a shed and although Carey was behind the door he pushed it open and got in. "You can't arrest me," Carey said to him and struck Lucas in the mouth, sending him to the ground.

Lucas, bleeding at the mouth and nose, struggled with his assailant, who, he said, gave him the knee in the abdomen and cut him behind the left ear. Lucas said his shirt was torn to pieces and he lost his collar in the encounter. He then called on two men in the crowd to assist him and with their help managed to get the handcuffs on his prisoner.

In answer to a question from the court Lucas said the two who assisted him were Jack Harding and Mr. Penton. "Were there any who refused?" "Yes, a man named Turnbull must have heard me but did not render assistance."

The magistrate then quoted the law and said it was a very serious matter for a citizen to refuse to assist the police when called upon to do so. There was liability of a heavy penalty.

The knife used in the encounter was produced in evidence. Besides a large blade, it was fitted up with a cork-screw and cigar cutter. Lucas said he saw a bottle of gin on the prisoner when he first started to run from him, but when he was arrested it could not be found. One was afterwards located in the shed where the arrest was made.

Policeman Garnet told of the condition Lucas was in after the encounter. He said he was bleeding profusely and was very warm.

The charge on which Carey was arrested will be heard at two o'clock on Wednesday and the magistrate will decide whether or not he will send the prisoner up for trial on the charge of resisting.

FOR ST. JOSEPH'S

Committees from the parishes of St. Peter's, Holy Trinity and St. John the Baptist churches started yesterday their work in connection with raising a fund to be presented to St. Joseph's college during the celebration of the golden jubilee of the institution next month.

A REVOLVER SHOT William S. Pallen was in the police court this morning charged with discharging a revolver at the Quaker refinery on Saturday evening. He admitted that he had done so, but said he was testing the revolver for the watchman. Some things were stolen from a room belonging to the company the day before. He said he fired it into a post on the roof of the refinery. The magistrate said he might have tested any other day but Sunday. The case will come up again tomorrow morning.

HOME FROM JAMAICA Arthur K. Munde, business manager of the W. S. Hawkins Co., arrived in the city on Saturday from Kingston, Jamaica, via New York. While in the tropics Mr. Munde received a generous cooling of tan and looks in the best of condition to secure high-class printed fabrics at the price of the ordinary kind. See advertisement on page 5 and our windows.

DEATH OF GEO. L. PIERCE After a long illness, George L. Pierce, a well-known father of the Quakeries, died at his home on Sunday, in the 62nd year of his age. Many in St. John will regret to learn of his death and will sympathize with his bereaved wife and family. There are four sons—A. E. Pierce, of the American Express Co., Boston; D. H. Pierce, of the firm of Pierce & Stoltz, Oregon City; Robert W. Pierce, of the I. C. R. Moncton, and F. E. Pierce, of the firm of Pierce & Stoltz, Oregon City. The daughters are: Misses Grace and Edna at home. The funeral will be held at half past two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. A. W. David officiating.

THE WIDOWED DUCHESS

The widowed Duchess of Argyll was married to the late Duke, then known as the Marquis of Lorne, in 1871 and spent five years with him in Canada during his occupancy of the post of governor-general from 1878 to 1883.

Queen Victoria's constant in the marriage of one of her daughters with the heir of a Scottish noble was very popular with the British people. An old Scotch peasant the tidings: "Queen Victoria will be a proud lady the noo!"

The duchess bears a striking resemblance to her mother, the late Queen Victoria. Her pose in this picture is identical with that of Victoria the Good in many of her portraits.
