Allies Trying Hard to Prevent THE LIST OF German Advance in Paris

Great Battle on the Upper Oise in Which British Soldiers Are Taking Leading Part—Germany Making a Bid for Help From India—The Situation Today

London, Sept. 2—A corner of the curtain over the battle drama in Northern France has been raised momentarily. It shows the allies battling desperately to prevent the success of the German assault on the upper Oise, less than fifty miles from Paris.

On the eastern war stage, Russia frankly confesses to disaster to two army corps, including the loss of three generals, Samaniv, Martos and Peetitch. Elsewhere the Russian arms seemed to have triumphed. Galicia has been successfully invaded, and Lemberg will soon be evacuated, according to reports from the St. Petersburg war office. If this is true, the Austria menace to Austrian Poland will be ended and the Russian forces can begin to converge for the march on Berlin, the Russian objective in North Galicia apparently being Koenigshutte, whence they can march on Berlin via Breslau. On the Upper Oise the British are fighting desperately to prevent the Germans from securing one of the most direct routes to of the British force in France, follow: Paris. News of this battle, reaching here from two different sources, bers the Germans secured a slight advantage.

Military experts point out that from the present position on the Upper Oise River, the German advance will become increasingly difficult, owing to the natural features of the country, as well as the artificial defenses that will have to be encountered.

It is becoming evident that all along the western line the allies are playing for time in the hope that the German assault will become exhausted.

On the diplomatic side, Germany is making renewed efforts to bring Italy into her camp by a proclamation which cites that a vicinating the Mediterranean.

This report was received in London from the headquarters in France of the rounding force.

GERMAN ADVANCE CONTINUES

London, Sept. 2—The Times correspondent at Dieppe, France, has telegraphed his paper as follows:

"In the main northern theatre of the war, the German advance appears to continue without slackening its pace.

"It must indeed be an over-wearied army that the Germans are bringing towards the forts of Paris.

"They have made an effort which nearly deserves to be called superhuman. Nothing like it ever was seen in war.

"Yet we may be sure they have spent themselves in vain."
