JUDGMENT GIVEN FOR

for the defendants.

In the afternoon J. M. Robinson, witness, stated that on the matter being brought to his attention, and after having investigated the matter he told Mr. Stockton that he found no evidence that a deposit such as he claimed had been made on the day of May 10. After hearing the arguments of Mr. Baxter and Mr. Wilson, his honor in his judgment said that he felt that there had not been fraud or misrepresentation by either party. The or misrepresentation by either party. The appearing underneath, fact that the entries in the ledger had tact that the entries in the ledger had been made in the ordinary course of business and at a time when the transaction happened, must be taken, in his mind, to be stronger evidence than the verbal testimony of Mr. Stockton, and he would have to find for the defendant.
