

THE WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

PRESIDENT	-	-	MRS. J. A. MURRAY.
VICE PRESIDENTS	-	-	{ MRS. WM. GORDON. MRS. THOMSON.
TREASURER	-	-	MISS KENNEDY.
SECRETARY	-	-	MRS. BLAIR.

In order to come into line with the congregational year, the Auxiliaries in the London Presbytery are closing their books in December this year, two months earlier than usual. For this reason we cannot present so full a Report. The Treasurer's statement will show how we stand financially.

As for several years past, we have this year employed no other method of raising funds than by voluntary offerings and members' fees.

The monthly meetings have been held regularly, and the attendance has somewhat increased since the time and place of meeting have been changed. We now meet in the Manse, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening, instead of, as formerly, in the Church in the afternoon.

There has been a decrease in our membership this year, owing to the formation of two new Auxiliaries in the City, one in Park Avenue Church in June, and one in London South quite recently, by which several members who had been with us almost ever since our organization, cast in their lot with these new Auxiliaries. Although we are in a sense losers, we rejoice that the general prosperity of the Society is advanced, and we say to these sister societies—God speed them in their work.

There have been eight new names added to our roll, leaving our membership very little short of what it was last year—
