

The Bible-Classes.

Mr. J. MURRAY SMITH continues to conduct the Young Women's Class, and is encouraged by the regular attendance and the interest in their studies of the International Lessons by the class. The number on the roll is twenty-nine. The Young Men's Class has been conducted by the REV. JAMES MACKIE since October. The attendance has not been so large as it ought to have been. There are at least one hundred young men and women in the Congregation who might be expected to avail themselves of such excellent opportunities as these classes afford for a profitable study of the Scriptures. To the want of suitable class-rooms may be attributed in some measure the limited attendance referred to. The young people of the Congregation, as well as those of maturer years, are earnestly invited to connect themselves with these classes.

It is now nearly fourteen years since this school was first organized, and it is gratifying to learn that at no period in its history has it been in a more efficient and satisfactory condition than at present. The roll of both scholars and teachers is now larger than at any previous time. The number of teachers is twenty, an increase of four during the past year. The number of scholars is 191, being an increase of 26. The school was
