

Chamberlain's COLIC, (DOLEKA) and Diarrhea Remedy

A few doses of this remedy will invariably cure an ordinary attack of diarrhea.
It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.
It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.
It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.
When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.
Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home.
It may save life.
Price 25c. Large Size 50c.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

WANTED—A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. Apply to Miss Ellis, Thames Street north.

FOR SALE—ON ALBERT STREET, good 9 roomed brick cottage with furnace, gas and town water. Apply Box A—Chronicle Office.

BOARDERS WANTED—HAVING opened up my boarding house again on the corner of King and Albert streets, I am prepared to accommodate a limited number of boarders. Mrs. Lawrence.

FRENCH—I AM PREPARED TO RECEIVE pupils for a French class or give private lessons. For particulars write or call, J. P. La Porte, at Daily House.

FOR SALE—DESIRABLE RESIDENCE, centrally located. Apply to Chas. W. Hishop.

LOST—ON TUESDAY FORENOON an north side of town or river road, a woolen plaid rug. Kindly return to Rev. James Thompson, Oxford street.

FOR SALE—DRY HARD MAPLE block wood, apply to W. F. Galloway or at Manchester or City Mill.

FOR SALE—DESIRABLE RESIDENCE, in good locality, all modern conveniences; also good building lot. Apply this office.

BIG PAY FOR AGENTS—MEN AND women make handsome wages selling our household specialties, every family needs them. A thoroughly legitimate business, you can start without a cent of capital. G. Marshall & Co., London, Ont.

FOR SALE—OLD NEWSPAPERS, suitable to put under carpets, etc. at Chronicle office.

IF THE BREADS THERE the most important part of the meal is the bread. It will not only sustain life, but take the place of many delicacies, which are considered indigestible to the weak and old. It is never gets sour or stale—made of the finest hard western wheat flour.

E. STANLEY

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM

WESTERN FAIR, LONDON

On from Ingersoll, going daily until Sept. 15. All tickets valid returning until Sept. 15, 1906.

LOW-RATE EXCURSIONS

Sept. 21, 22, 23

Port Huron ..... $1.00

Detroit ..... 4.00

Chicago ..... 9.00

St. Paul, Minn. .... 11.00

St. Louis, Mo. .... 12.00

St. Charles, Mo. .... 13.00

St. Joseph, Mo. .... 14.00

St. Louis, Mo. .... 15.00

St. Charles, Mo. .... 16.00

St. Joseph, Mo. .... 17.00

St. Louis, Mo. .... 18.00

St. Charles, Mo. .... 19.00

St. Joseph, Mo. .... 20.00

St. Louis, Mo. .... 21.00

St. Charles, Mo. .... 22.00

St. Joseph, Mo. .... 23.00

St. Louis, Mo. .... 24.00

St. Charles, Mo. .... 25.00

St. Joseph, Mo. .... 26.00

St. Louis, Mo. .... 27.00

St. Charles, Mo. .... 28.00

St. Joseph, Mo. .... 29.00

St. Louis, Mo. .... 30.00

St. Charles, Mo. .... 31.00

St. Joseph, Mo. .... 32.00

St. Louis, Mo. .... 33.00

St. Charles, Mo. .... 34.00

St. Joseph, Mo. .... 35.00

A Courageous Girl.

"Don't grieve over it Ray, for it will not avail," his father returned kindly. "Experience is the best teacher and no one will ever rob us in the same way again."

"I do not think that is likely, and yet I cannot get over it; I cannot but consider the game irrevocably lost, even yet."

"You may as well, for I am sure we shall never see any of them again," said Mr. Palmer quietly.

"Who is this lady approaching us?" Ray asked after a moment. "You were talking to her when I motioned to you."

Mr. Palmer glanced up. "That is a Mrs. Montague—"

"Montague?" interrupted Ray in a startled tone. "Can she be anything to friend?"

"No, nothing. I asked the question upon learning her name," his father answered.

"You may as well, for I am sure we shall never see any of them again," said Mr. Palmer quietly.

"Who is this lady approaching us?" Ray asked after a moment. "You were talking to her when I motioned to you."

Mr. Palmer glanced up. "That is a Mrs. Montague—"

"Montague?" interrupted Ray in a startled tone. "Can she be anything to friend?"

"No, nothing. I asked the question upon learning her name," his father answered.

"You may as well, for I am sure we shall never see any of them again," said Mr. Palmer quietly.

"Who is this lady approaching us?" Ray asked after a moment. "You were talking to her when I motioned to you."

Mr. Palmer glanced up. "That is a Mrs. Montague—"

"Montague?" interrupted Ray in a startled tone. "Can she be anything to friend?"

"No, nothing. I asked the question upon learning her name," his father answered.

"You may as well, for I am sure we shall never see any of them again," said Mr. Palmer quietly.

"Who is this lady approaching us?" Ray asked after a moment. "You were talking to her when I motioned to you."

Mr. Palmer glanced up. "That is a Mrs. Montague—"

"Montague?" interrupted Ray in a startled tone. "Can she be anything to friend?"

"No, nothing. I asked the question upon learning her name," his father answered.

"You may as well, for I am sure we shall never see any of them again," said Mr. Palmer quietly.

"Who is this lady approaching us?" Ray asked after a moment. "You were talking to her when I motioned to you."

Mr. Palmer glanced up. "That is a Mrs. Montague—"

"Montague?" interrupted Ray in a startled tone. "Can she be anything to friend?"

"No, nothing. I asked the question upon learning her name," his father answered.

"You may as well, for I am sure we shall never see any of them again," said Mr. Palmer quietly.

"Who is this lady approaching us?" Ray asked after a moment. "You were talking to her when I motioned to you."

Mr. Palmer glanced up. "That is a Mrs. Montague—"

"Montague?" interrupted Ray in a startled tone. "Can she be anything to friend?"

"No, nothing. I asked the question upon learning her name," his father answered.

"You may as well, for I am sure we shall never see any of them again," said Mr. Palmer quietly.

"Who is this lady approaching us?" Ray asked after a moment. "You were talking to her when I motioned to you."

Mr. Palmer glanced up. "That is a Mrs. Montague—"

"Montague?" interrupted Ray in a startled tone. "Can she be anything to friend?"

"No, nothing. I asked the question upon learning her name," his father answered.

OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Two Grateful Letters from Women Who Avoided Serious Operations—Many Women Suffering from Like Conditions Will Be Interested.

When a physician tells a woman, suffering from ovarian or womb trouble, that an operation is necessary it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart. As one woman expressed it, when told by her physician that she must undergo an operation, she felt that her death knell had sounded.

Our hospitals are full of women who are there for ovarian or womb operations.

It is quite true that these troubles are seen every day where an operation is the only resource, but such cases are much rarer than is generally supposed, because a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after the doctors had said an operation must be performed.

In fact, up to the point where the knife must be used to secure instant relief, this medicine is certain to help.

The strongest and most grateful testimonies come from women who, by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, have escaped serious operations.

Mrs. Robert Glenn of 444 Marie St., Ottawa, Ont., writes:

"I have been suffering from ovarian trouble for many years, and the doctors told me that I must undergo an operation, but as I was unwilling to do so, I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after a few days I felt much better, and after a few more days I was completely cured."

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.

going to lay the matter before Detective Rider and see what he thinks about it."

He was more strongly confirmed in his suspicions a few moments later when he saw Mrs. Vanderhook bidding her host and hostess good night, and then withdrew from the room.

About ten o'clock supper was served, and, strangely enough, after the company was seated, Ray found that his left-hand neighbor was no other than the fascinating Mrs. Montague, while, glancing beyond her, he saw that his father had acted as her escort to the last dance.

It annoyed him exceedingly to see them together and to observe the gallantry with which his father was attending to the fair widow's wants.

During all the years that had elapsed since the death of his mother, Mr. Palmer had not manifested the slightest desire for the society of women, and Ray had never thought of such a thing as his marrying again.

But now it suddenly flashed across him: "What if this woman, who is the world, with her beauty and powers of fascination should tempt him to make her his mistress of his home and wealth?"

The thought was far from agreeable to his mind, and yet he could not help but think of it.

He could find not fault with Mrs. Montague personally; she was beautiful in face and figure; she was delightful in manner. Why then did he shrink from the thought of having her come into the life of his home?

He was puzzled. He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

He was torn between the thought of his father's comfort and enjoyment of a more perfect domestic life, and the thought of having anyone come between them.

ACTRESS AS CO-RESPONDENT

WIFE OF YUKON MAN SEEKS A DIVORCE

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—Mrs. Boyle, wife of Mr. J. W. Boyle, the well-known Yukon miner, arrived here last Friday from New York with her two little girls, Charlotte and Susie, and is staying at the Russell. It is understood that she has consulted a local legal firm with a view to instituting proceedings in the Senate for divorce from her husband on the alleged ground of infidelity. Miss Jessie Wyatt, who is well known in theatrical circles, being prominently mentioned in connection with the case.

Mrs. Boyle is a Woodstock man, his wife being an American lady. Jessie Wyatt was for some years the leading lady with the Cummings Stock Company, which formerly played for weeks a time in Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto.

Mr. Boyle, it is said, first met the charming actress in the Senate, and after a time, when he had Frank Slavin, the well known pugilist with him, interviewing the Department of the Interior on mining matters. Mr. Boyle was greatly impressed with Miss Wyatt's attainments and induced her to go to Dawson. The divorce case about to be instituted is the outcome.

At a recent meeting of the council board of the township of North Oxford, it was the unanimous wish of every member that the next meeting of the board be held at the house of one of the members, Mr. Ross Hogg of Thamesford, who had just returned from a three months' visit to friends and scenes in Scotland.

Promptly at the time appointed the board, together with a few intimate friends, numbering about 40, met at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Hogg on Monday evening of this week. After the usual business of the board had been carried out, Mr. Hogg rose and presented Mr. Boyle with a handsome gold-headed cane suitable inscribed, and Mrs. Hogg with a beautiful silver and pearl-handled umbrella, also inscribed. Mr. Hogg was almost completely overcome but managed with some prompt to make a feeling and kindly acknowledgment of the kind tokens of esteem from his fellows during his labors among them. Mrs. Hogg responded to the address in a few well chosen words and welcomed the friends to her home and in her usual happy manner thanked the board for their kind appreciation of their services in the community. Address and songs were delivered by a number present including Mr. D. Sutherland, M. P. P., for South Oxford, who it must be said made the speech of the evening. The songs by Messrs. B. B. McCarthy and Mutterer were well received. An excellent lunch was served by the hostess and was enjoyed by all. The Star joins their many friends in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Hogg the hearty good wishes and a continuance of their useful life amongst us, and we hope to hear of Mr. Hogg enjoying even higher honors for the faithful work performed. The following is the address:

Dear Friends.—We, a few of your friends and neighbors, have gathered in your home tonight to greet you on your return from an extended trip abroad and to express our pleasure at having you amongst us once more.

(While we have missed you and have waited your safe return we have enjoyed the sight in the Old Land, your thoughts also would sometimes return to home and friends and that you were frequently reminded of the poet's immortal words:

"We desire, on this occasion, to convey to you our appreciation of your service in our township council, where you have shown such willingness to the public welfare.

Wishing to express in some tangible manner the feelings which we entertain towards you we ask you to accept this cane and Mrs. Hogg's umbrella, assuring you that it is accompanied by our best wishes for your future happiness.

Signed on behalf of your friends, Alex. Ross, John Mutterer, Thos. Hennessy.

Cheap Rent. Four shillings per annum was the rent of a five roomed house in England during Henry VIII's time.

Girls in Albania. The true worth of a girl in Albania is sometimes readily estimated. When she desires to marry she collects all her money and mounts it on her head, so that observers may note her financial value.

Theater Tickets in Spain. Theater goers in Spain can purchase a separate ticket for each act and often do not stay to see more than one act at a time. It is quite the usual thing to spend four nights over a four act play, seeing one act one night, the second act a few nights later, and so on.

AN HONORED COUNCILLOR

PRESENTATION BY THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL OF NORTH OXFORD.

(Thamesford Star.)

At a recent meeting of the council board of the township of North Oxford, it was the unanimous wish of every member that the next meeting of the board be held at the house of one of the members, Mr. Ross Hogg of Thamesford, who had just returned from a three months' visit to friends and scenes in Scotland.

Promptly at the time appointed the board, together with a few intimate friends, numbering about 40, met at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Hogg on Monday evening of this week. After the usual business of the board had been carried out, Mr. Hogg rose and presented Mr. Boyle with a handsome gold-headed cane suitable inscribed, and Mrs. Hogg with a beautiful silver and pearl-handled umbrella, also inscribed. Mr. Hogg was almost completely overcome but managed with some prompt to make a feeling and kindly acknowledgment of the kind tokens of esteem from his fellows during his labors among them. Mrs. Hogg responded to the address in a few well chosen words and welcomed the friends to her home and in her usual happy manner thanked the board for their kind appreciation of their services in the community. Address and songs were delivered by a number present including Mr. D. Sutherland, M. P. P., for South Oxford, who it must be said made the speech of the evening. The songs by Messrs. B. B. McCarthy and Mutterer were well received. An excellent lunch was served by the hostess and was enjoyed by all. The Star joins their many friends in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Hogg the hearty good wishes and a continuance of their useful life amongst us, and we hope to hear of Mr. Hogg enjoying even higher honors for the faithful work performed. The following is the address:

Dear Friends.—We, a few of your friends and neighbors, have gathered in your home tonight to greet you on your return from an extended trip abroad and to express our pleasure at having you amongst us once more.

(While we have missed you and have waited your safe return we have enjoyed the sight in the Old Land, your thoughts also would sometimes return to home and friends and that you were frequently reminded of the poet's immortal words:

"We desire, on this occasion, to convey to you our appreciation of your service in our township council, where you have shown such willingness to the public welfare.

Wishing to express in some tangible manner the feelings which we entertain towards you we ask you to accept this cane and Mrs. Hogg's umbrella, assuring you that it is accompanied by our best wishes for your future happiness.

Signed on behalf of your friends, Alex. Ross, John Mutterer, Thos. Hennessy.

Cheap Rent. Four shillings per annum was the rent of a five roomed house in England during Henry VIII's time.

Girls in Albania. The true worth of a girl in Albania is sometimes readily estimated. When she desires to marry she collects all her money and mounts it on her head, so that observers may note her financial value.

Theater Tickets in Spain. Theater goers in Spain can purchase a separate ticket for each act and often do not stay to see more than one act at a time. It is quite the usual thing to spend four nights over a four act play, seeing one act one night, the second act a few nights later, and so on.

AN HONORED COUNCILLOR

PRESENTATION BY THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL OF NORTH OXFORD.

(Thamesford Star.)

At a recent meeting of the council board of the township of North Oxford, it was the unanimous wish of every member that the next meeting of the board be held at the house of one of the members, Mr. Ross Hogg of Thamesford, who had just returned from a three months' visit to friends and scenes in Scotland.

Promptly at the time appointed the board, together with a few intimate friends, numbering about 40, met at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Hogg on Monday evening of this week. After the usual business of the board had been carried out, Mr. Hogg rose and presented Mr. Boyle with a handsome gold-headed cane suitable inscribed, and Mrs. Hogg with a beautiful silver and pearl-handled umbrella, also inscribed. Mr. Hogg was almost completely overcome but managed with some prompt to make a feeling and kindly acknowledgment of the kind tokens of esteem from his fellows during his labors among them. Mrs. Hogg responded to the address in a few well chosen words and welcomed the friends to her home and in her usual happy manner thanked the board for their kind appreciation of their services in the community. Address and songs were delivered by a number present including Mr. D. Sutherland, M. P. P., for South Oxford, who it must be said made the speech of the evening. The songs by Messrs. B. B. McCarthy and Mutterer were well received. An excellent lunch was served by the hostess and was enjoyed by all. The Star joins their many friends in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Hogg the hearty good wishes and a continuance of their useful life amongst us, and we hope to hear of Mr. Hogg enjoying even higher honors for the faithful work performed. The following is the address:

Dear Friends.—We, a few of your friends and neighbors, have gathered in your home tonight to greet you on your return from an extended trip abroad and to express our pleasure at having you amongst us once more.

(While we have missed you and have waited your safe return we have enjoyed the sight in the Old Land, your thoughts also would sometimes return to home and friends and that you were frequently reminded of the poet's immortal words:

"We desire, on this occasion, to convey to you our appreciation of your service in our township council, where you have shown such willingness to the public welfare.

Wishing to express in some tangible manner the feelings which we entertain towards you we ask you to accept this cane and Mrs. Hogg's umbrella, assuring you that it is accompanied by our best wishes for your future happiness.

Signed on behalf of your friends, Alex. Ross, John Mutterer, Thos. Hennessy.

Cheap Rent. Four shillings per annum was the rent of a five roomed house in England during Henry VIII's time.

Girls in Albania. The true worth of a girl in Albania is sometimes readily estimated. When she desires to marry she collects all her money and mounts it on her head, so that observers may note her financial value.

Theater Tickets in Spain. Theater goers in Spain can purchase a separate ticket for each act and often do not stay to see more than one act at a time. It is quite the usual thing to spend four nights over a four act play, seeing one act one night, the second act a few nights later, and so on.

AN HONORED COUNCILLOR

PRESENTATION BY THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL OF NORTH OXFORD.

Hollinrake & Co

Are simply doing an Immense business in Carpets, Rugs, Linoleums,

The splendid patterns we Have, the moderate prices We ask, and the good Workmanship displayed in

The cutting, sewing and Laying of Carpets and Rugs is commanding the Attention of the most Critical carpet buyers in this section.

All work guaranteed. Satisfaction assured or No sale.

The Special Offer Still holds good

We measure your rooms Make and lay the Carpets Free of charge. We also Lay Linoleums free

Consider what a great Saving this is to you, both In time and money.

Hollinrake & Co

15 p. c. Discount for Cash

$2000.00

Must be raised within six weeks. To do this we are going to sell Furniture at a 15 per cent. discount on the regular retail price. The largest stock in town to choose from. This sale will last only six weeks from Saturday, Sept. 9.

TREMEER & CO.

(Successors to A. W. Bartlett)

Furniture Dealers and Undertakers.

KING ST., - INGERSOLL

Phone 56