THE LABOR AGITATOR

He Kicks Up a Fuss and May be Likened to the Dasher in a Churn.

The agitator may be likened to the dasher in the churn. After the dasher has been put into the churn, it begins to revolve, and the milk is whipped into cream.

GEM THOUGHTS. From J. J. Gordon's sermon on "The Secret of a Shining Face."

There are four elements that enter into life. The first is doubt. There is no truly happy soul that lives in a constant fear of death.

Aunt Cassandra's Fan

By Harriet Whitney Durbin

Sister Evelyn said she thought it was very unbecomingly of me to be so fastidious on the soft, creamy satin. Dear Cass, will you forgive me?

"Oh, Joe, Joe!" I gurgled as he caught me up so tight the end of his pocket nearly went down my throat.

Higher Mathematics. James Hogan was no doubt an important person in Brampton.

ENGLISH SOCIETY TONE

ROYALTY, ARISTOCRACY AND LAND-OWNING CLASS CONTROL IT.

There is no word you will hear in England at the time, wherever you are, that is more common than "English."

ANECDOTES OF THE PEERAGE

Lord Dufferin was a gentleman of the first order.

The late Lord Dufferin, the well-known diplomatist, was a very general man. Once, when on a visit to his Irish estate, he had a rough quarrel with a machine-broker.

There is a pretty story told of the late Lord Granville at a naval review. Though advanced in years, he was in honor.
