

Near Free State Capital

Lord Roberts is Now Twenty-Five Miles From Bloemfontein.

Gatacre May Join the Commander-in-Chief in a Few Days.

Boers Are Now Between Two British Forces—Rumors Regarding Mafeking.

(Associated Press.)

London, March 12.—At the present rate of progress Lord Roberts should be in Bloemfontein on March 14th, though all calculations may be upset by the development of more strenuous resistance than the Boers have so far attempted.

The distance between Roberts and the Free State capital is so small, only about twenty-five miles, that it is apparent the Boers either contemplate making a determined stand on the outskirts of the town or for strategic reasons, best known to themselves, are allowing Lord Roberts to occupy, after merely harassing his advance.

Gatacre at Bethulle.

The commander-in-chief's latest dispatch announcing that Gen. Gatacre is at Bethulle bridge, and the special sargeant Gatacre commands the bridge approaches, puts the Boers in that vicinity between two British forces, Asvoeg Kop, whence Lord Roberts sent his last cable message, being 100 miles almost due north of Bethulle.

Commenting on the fact that Lord Roberts found the Boers holding a position in a part of the country supposed to have been left open, the St. James Gazette says: "No more damning indictments were ever preferred against any cavalry."

Unconfirmed Rumors.

Rumors of the relief of Mafeking continue to circulate, but fail of any confirmation.

No News From Natal. From Natal, which General Buller so erroneously declared was free of Boers, and from Cape Colony, where General Kitchener's stern hand is upon the rebellion, there is no news of any importance.

ADVANCE UNOPPOSED.

London, March 12.—The war office this morning issued the following dispatch from Asvoeg Kop under the date of March 12th, 5.30 a.m. "We were unopposed during the march yesterday."

The officers left at the last camp to record the list of casualties have not yet arrived. The following additional casualties are known, however: Killed—Lieut. Parsons and Coddington of the Essex Regiment. Wounded—Lieuts. Berkeley, Lloyd and Raleigh. "General Gatacre reports that he was within a mile of the Bethulle railway bridge yesterday. The bridge was partially destroyed, and the enemy was holding the opposite bank."

KRUGER APPEALS TO POWERS

The Hague, March 12.—It is learned from a reliable source that President Kruger, through consuls at Pretoria, has appealed for the intervention of the great powers in the Transvaal war, and has also appealed to the governments of Belgium, Holland and Switzerland.

HOBBS OF BATTLEFIELD.

London, March 12.—For real ghastliness of war and the horrors of the battlefield, a private letter from a young medical officer at Spion Kop, printed in the Daily Graphic, can scarcely be beaten. "I selected a pass," he writes, "overhung by steep clay banks on the top of which I got up a Red Cross flag. Cases now began to pour down from Spion Kop on stretchers. The Boers opened fire on us, and three of us were killed in quick succession in my direction, but they fell short and did no harm. "From this time to 1 o'clock next morning wounded came through my dressing station, as the pass was the only exit from the hill. I saw every case, and some of them were mutilated beyond description. Fully 300 wounded and dead passed through my hands. Many poor chap, shot in the morning in the front trenches, who could not be reached, lay in the bushes all day. One old colonel in Theriot's walked down, leaning on a rifle. He was a mass of wounds, one ear shot through by a bullet, his chin, neck and chest through by others, and his back and legs torn by shells. He came in and said he just dropped in to let me take his finger off as it was so shattered that he could not pull the trigger of the rifle, as it got in the way of the next finger, which he could use, for he wanted to get back up the hill to pay the Dutchmen back. Of course I would not let him go back.

"Bullet wounds are beautifully clean, just a round hole, and, as a rule, do not do much damage as they often go through the bone without maiming it, and do not bleed much. Shell wounds are hideous.

"It was now frightfully dark, and I put one of the lanterns on a stick as a directing light to my pass. One of a group of soldiers returning to the hill tried to run away with it. Shortly after this both lanterns went out, and I had a pretty bad time.

As the pass often got blocked with wounded. Finally I could send no more wounded across the drift, and had to stack them with the dead in rows on the grass. I collected the wounded officers on stretchers and gave them brandy and hypodermic of morphia.

"Commandants Botha and Bures, the Boer generals, came up at daybreak. The former, who was chief general, was a small thin man with yellow beard and hair, and had a magnificent sideburns. He carried with him a number of mounted Kaffirs carrying ammunition and a water bottle, and an interpreter. He seemed, however, to understand English, though he refused to speak it. There were quite a number of German officers. I heard one of them had been killed. They let our men search the dead for identification cards, letters and money. Several Boers handed in little things they found."

UNITED STATES OFFER.

Washington, March 12.—There is reason to believe that the United States government is using its good offices to restore peace between Great Britain and the South African Republics. This has not taken the shape of proffered mediation. That it would be distinctly repugnant to Great Britain, and according to the rule of international law which has without exception governed the state department in the past, could not be volunteered by the United States. It was known to be acceptable to both parties to the war. But the United States might very properly serve as an intermediary to transmit an appeal for peace and the terms upon which peace can be secured.

The United States has successfully served in this capacity in the past, notably in the interior Chinese war, and it is believed its good offices in this line are now being extended.

The facts in the case will be fully developed in a day or two.

London, March 12.—There is no important news from the front, and speculation is rife regarding the probability of an early peace. President Kruger's appeal to Lord Salisbury for a cessation of hostilities, announced on Friday, is taken as foreshadowing that the end will soon be in sight.

The views of the government are probably enunciated in the following semi-official statement issued last night: "It is understood that the government does not consider that the time has yet arrived for an authoritative statement as to the ultimate terms of peace and no member of the cabinet has yet authorized any public statement on the question. It is of course generally understood among all political parties in this country that so far as the South African republics are concerned, the status quo ante bellum.

Cannot Remain Unaltered after the close of hostilities. Their part in the system which involved a large measure of political and military independence will of course be materially modified as a result of the war, but the growing prospects of restored peace must be further advised before Her Majesty's government can either finally formulate proposed terms of settlement or make any announcement of this plan."

Several papers announce that the government on Tuesday received messages from President Kruger and President Steyn, in Dutch, asking upon what terms a cessation of hostilities could be brought about. The messages were particularly lighted the department concerned, while their tenor was understood, it was found necessary to summon persons thoroughly capable of accurately interpreting the message, all of which were filed at

"Oiling Up."

Just a little oil on the engine at the right time may mean the difference between a successful voyage and a wrecked crew. What oil is to the friction of delicate parts of the engine, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is to the delicate organs of the body.

It cases their labor, prevents the loss of power and waste of energy caused by friction. Many ailments which will run down, whose limbs ached when he walked, whose back ached when he laid down, who breathed with difficulty, and coughed constantly, has been perfectly cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach and heals weak lungs. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," nor any medicine called "just as good" by the dealer.

Mr. Chas. Huswick, of Lenox, Macomb Co., Mich., writes: "I have never felt better in my life than I do now. I have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery right along, and I can now walk quite well with a cane, and I have thrown even that away before long, and as I have had to use crutches for nearly two years, I think I am doing fine. Do not cough now and I can sleep like a school boy. You must know that I have been treated by two or three different doctors besides, and received no benefit, so I think your medicine is the only medicine for me."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser in paper cover, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Bloemfontein. The cabinet convened on Wednesday to consider the messages. It is believed.

An Uncompromising Reply

was sent which is known to have reached Bloemfontein by the time messages as the Boer telegram reached the government.

The nature of the reply was such as to lead to a further but gradual retirement of the Boer forces. Mr. Spencer Wilkinson, summarizing the situation, says: "The fighting reported near Heilmsakkar is probably only the result of a reconnaissance, and it seems to me to be premature to assume that any movement in large force is in progress in that direction. General Buller, as soon as communications are in order, will certainly do what he can to keep the Boer force in Natal engaged and prevent them all from being used to reinforce the enemy residing Lord Roberts. I expect Lord Roberts to Strike Bloemfontein in a day or two."

"As to Mafeking, if it is not relieved, the place must fall. One therefore hopes a brigade had been sent up from Kimberley for its relief within a day or two of the evacuation of Mafeking by the Boers. There has been time for such a column to reach Mafeking by road, but there is no direct evidence of its existence, and the wish is father to the thought."

THE ROUTE AT OSFONTEIN.

Canadian Contingent Was Present but Saw Little Fighting.

Toronto, March 10.—A cablegram from the camp of the Royal Canadian Regiment at Poplar Grove, on the march to Bloemfontein, says: "The Canadians, with the Gordon Highlanders, Cornwallis and Shropshire Regiment, forming part of the Nineteenth Brigade, took an active part in the engagement at Osfontein.

"The Canadian troops occupied the left bank of the Modder River, where were also the Cornwallis and Shropshires, the Gordons keeping the right bank.

"There were no casualties among the Canadian troops. Our men saw very little active fighting.

"Deprived of support, it became impossible for the Boers to maintain a position on their left line of trenches, and they hastily retreated. The Shropshires, who occupied a position in advance of the Canadians along the left bank, charged a kopje held by the enemy and captured a gun.

"The fight was therefore the Canadians had an opportunity to come to close action.

"The regiment is showing improved health. There are very few in hospital."

"DROWNING THE SHAMROCK."

Mr. O'Brien Will Ask Government to Give a Shilling to Each Irish Soldier.

(Associated Press.) London, March 9.—In the House of Commons to-day Patrick O'Brien, Nationalist, will ask the government to give a shilling to each soldier on St. Patrick's Day to enable him to celebrate the occasion by "drowning the Shamrock."

NIGARAGUAN CANAL.

(Associated Press.) Washington, March 9.—The senate committee on foreign relations to-day agreed to report the Hay-Pauncefote treaty amending the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, to grant authority for the defence of the canal by this country when constructed.

The following is the text of the amendment to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty: "Insert at the end of section five of article two the following: It is agreed, however, that none of the immediately foregoing
