

Miramichi and the North Shore.

Mr. Snowball and Mr. Mitchell addressed the electors at Cameron Settlement, Black River, on Tuesday evening.

FAIR PLAY.—The friends of fair play in Newcastle deprecate the tearing down of notices posted in that town by Mr. Snowball's Committee.

INTERVIEW.—New open views are being put in the R. C. Chapel at Edmundston, under the superintendence of Messrs. Jax, Brasfield and Wm. G. Tait.

TRIPLE SOCIETY MEETING.—The Annual meeting of the Miramichi Ladies' Auxiliary Bible Society will be held (D. V.) in the Mechanic Institute, Newcastle, on Thursday, Sept. 12th at 2 P. M.

Collectors will please complete their canvass before that time.

ON THE NARRAGUSETT.—A pleasant time was spent last week by two of our townsmen—Messrs. Chino and Dallal, the former in photographing, and the latter in fishing this grand and rugged river.

SEVEN VIEWS WERE SECURED AND TEN SALMON KILLED, one of 42 lbs, being an extraordinary specimen for this season.—News.

SUBMERGED CRAW.—The Pilot Schr. Adams, owned by Miss Angus Mitchell, brought to port on Sunday last eight men, crew of the Norwegian barque Moss, which was ashore on North Cape, P. E. I. on Monday night of last week, becoming a total wreck. The Moss was on her way to this port.

BELLEVILLE.—The Catholic picnic at Belleville on Wednesday 21st. The weather was everything that could be desired, although for two or three days previously it was dark and wet.

NATURAL ICE HOUSE.—The Yarmouth Tribune makes mention of a natural ice house in Antigonish County, N.S., from which fishermen obtain their ice supply during the summer.

Quarterly.—The "Blooded Banner," by Miss Nellie Loggie, Mary Johnston, and Miss McKeown.

Reading.—"The Black Flag," and "The Fall in an Immense Mass" during the winter and remains through nearly the whole summer.

Conservators.—"A Vote in Northumberland," by Miss Jennie Shirreff, Little Lonsdon and Annie Davidson.

During the evening, the President called for signatures to the pledge announcing that the number now on the roll was 1415 upon which several of the audience responded to the call.

Correspondence from different parts of the County relating to meetings held by Mr. Mitchell, indicates that the electors are realising the absolute weakness of his claims upon this constituency.

A BELLICOUS SAILOR.—On Friday morning sailing of the Barkentine "Marion Luther" from St. John's, P. E. I., with a cargo of fish, which was being discharged.

FAIR PLAY.—The Inspector of Fisheries letters in the Campaign paper, the Sun, attacking Mr. Smith of Chatham, called forth a reply from that gentleman, which was purposely marred in the Sun office before being published.

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESSES.—On Wednesday evening of last week, Mr. A. J. Loggie, who has been in the employ of J. B. Snowball, Esq., for some seven years, was previous to his departure for Colorado, where he will make his home for the future, presented with an address and purse of $10 by some of his fellow-employees, and another addressed by a number of his other friends.

A "Trolley Street" Affair.—A few weeks ago Mr. Mitchell took advantage of the meeting called at Newcastle, by the Sheriff, in connection with the return of Mr. Adams as Surveyor General, to place his views before the electors of the County. Mr. Snowball happened to enter the Court House just as Mr. Mitchell commenced to speak and having waited until he was done, replied to him. Mr. Mitchell spoke again in reply to Mr. Snowball and the latter again replied.

On Thursday our district (Tabernacle) had a meeting in the evening, the returns from Tracadie. Pursuant to notice about seventeen electors, out of one hundred and ninety-one in the district, together with about ten young men and boys, assembled to hear him explain his sentiments.

On Friday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Saturday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Sunday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Monday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Tuesday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Wednesday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Thursday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Friday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Saturday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Sunday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Monday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Tuesday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

On Wednesday Mr. Mitchell addressed a small audience in the River de Caches School House, on the bank of the river, in the presence of an audience waiting from seven o'clock of the hour appointed until past nine before he began to speak.

friends had arranged for a meeting at Newcastle the next evening, at which Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Snowball were to explain their respective political positions.

Mr. Snowball was, at the time, away canvassing in the Parish of Gilmelsh and his chief clerk, Mr. Leishman, at once telegraphed to Mr. Call that Mr. Snowball was absent and the time of his return was uncertain.

Notwithstanding that Mr. Call advised next morning (yesterday) in the Advocate and by posters, that a public meeting would be held that evening in the Newcastle Masonic Hall at which it was expected that Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Snowball would deliver addresses.

The tactics of Mr. R. R. Call and the "Committee" of which he advertises himself the chairman, appear to have been hardly fair towards either Mr. Snowball or the public.

It might be, from their standpoint, very desirable to get a large audience as possible to hear Mr. Mitchell, but after Mr. Call received Mr. Leishman's telegram he was not justified, even by his own standard.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public. Besides it is not a very long time until Nomination Day, when the public will again have an opportunity of hearing both gentlemen at the same time.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

Mr. Call ought also to know that, in times like the present, Mr. Snowball's engagements would be made a little more than a day ahead, and that he could not reasonably be expected to hold himself in the office and capital of a committee of Mr. Mitchell's friends, who do not, by any means represent the public.

As a whipper-in for Mr. Mitchell in a district where Mr. Snowball's friends formed such a large portion of the strength, it is to be hoped that Mr. Adams will have an eye to the future and leave Mr. Mitchell to take care of himself, otherwise he may find that without giving much help to Mr. Mitchell, he has done considerable injury to himself.

We may remark that as Mr. Snowball has always attended faithfully to any public business undertaken by him, it is fair to suppose that when he is elected to Parliament he will pursue the same policy. When did Mr. Mitchell discover that the fact of a gentleman being a lumber merchant and having business in Great Britain ought to be an objection to his holding a seat in Parliament.

And further resolved that the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

The above resolutions were seconded by Charles Anthony, Esq., and passed unanimously. The next meeting of the Harwick Dutcher Society will be 12th of September.

By publishing the above you will oblige your friend, THE EDITOR.

It is well known that the present Government have been keeping in its employ a number of men who, though eating its bread and receiving its pay, have been doing nothing to serve it faithfully.

THE SROONG PARTY is seldom rude, disorderly or unjust towards its opponents. Courtesy, moderation, forbearance, are evidence of the strength of which they are the outgrowth.—Freeman.

OFFICE HOLDERS.—Complaints under the conduct of office holders against the Government are made on P. E. Island, as here and elsewhere. The Patriot says, as here and elsewhere. The Patriot says, as here and elsewhere.

AN UNBIASED OPINION.—The Scottish American Journal, an authority with respect to the Canadian situation, says: "In anticipation of the approaching election in Canada, a forceful discussion is being conducted on the question of free-trade and protection."

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

"Glory Hallelujah" and the Doxology. The Chaplain, Rev. W. B. Thomas opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer and closed with the benediction.

Resolved.—That the thanks of the Harwick Dutcher Reform Society for their late visit to the Parish of Harwick and for choosing Harwick as the place in which they held their late picnic.

Resolved.—That the thanks of this Society be tendered to the founder of the Dutcher societies in this County for his late visit to the Parish of Harwick.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

Resolved.—That the above resolutions be sent to the Miramichi Advance and the Chatham Reformer, published as Chatham news items.

out-planned recently, denied it? What reply has he to Mr. Cartwright's inquiry as to what in his heart he thinks of the Pacific Seals?

And what reply has he to the question of his personal honor of having himself introduced resolutions to take a million for three millions by the Northern Railway which his colleagues were pocketing $27,000 of the price of that transaction?

How does he plead to Cartwright's terse judgment of "cheap ruin and dear floor."

It is well known that the present Government have been keeping in its employ a number of men who, though eating its bread and receiving its pay, have been doing nothing to serve it faithfully.

THE SROONG PARTY is seldom rude, disorderly or unjust towards its opponents. Courtesy, moderation, forbearance, are evidence of the strength of which they are the outgrowth.—Freeman.

OFFICE HOLDERS.—Complaints under the conduct of office holders against the Government are made on P. E. Island, as here and elsewhere. The Patriot says, as here and elsewhere. The Patriot says, as here and elsewhere.

AN UNBIASED OPINION.—The Scottish American Journal, an authority with respect to the Canadian situation, says: "In anticipation of the approaching election in Canada, a forceful discussion is being conducted on the question of free-trade and protection."

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

COASTERS.—The course pursued has destroyed his influence for good to the County and prevented our interests from receiving that consideration which might have otherwise been secured for them.

Shipping Intelligence. Port of Chatham. EXTENDED FROM PAGE 2.

Aug. 14.—Bark Martin Luther, 792, Brunswick, Geo. W. J. B. Snowball.

Aug. 15.—Bark Naryana, 389, Scheen, St. Naz