The Kick-A-Poo at Chatham Skating Rink to-night.

Why is the river route to Newcastle as much preferred by Chatham anglers?

PERSONAL: Geo. I. Wilson, Esq., now Vancouver, is visiting his Chatham friends, who are delighted to see him.

SOCIAL DANCE: A Quartet Assembly was held in the Newcastle hall last evening, Feb. 28th. A good string band will be introduced to put "life and merriment" in the heads and toes of the dancers. An enjoyable time is expected.

CHILD RED FEATHER is his emblematic costume at the Carnival to-night.

OUR NEARLY friend, who wants to know why "Red-Feather" is so much applied to the "beginner on horseback" who employed the term "We decline to publish the account of the fracas, as we do not care to mar our columns with such exhibitions of the degree of culture attained by the sporting parties to the snow. Barram ought to secure the pair of shoes."

MISS ROBERT STEVENS'S WORK: A magnificent china tea set on exhibition at the art store, corner of 5th St. and Kasaba streets, Teachers' and Cook's place, attracts universal attention. It is an hand work by Mrs. R. Steiner, and is found in Chicago. It is one of the handiwork of the ever seen in Aachen, and is fitted by all the ladies, who are wondering who will get it for a Christmas present. -Athens Daily Champion.

BEAR BEAR, KISSER OF Big Bear, at the Skating Rink (Carnival) this evening.

VERACITY AND VEGANCE: The Albany Argus says:—

"The Thursday William Dumpey of Bonaventure received a quantity of snails and pickled which were frozen stiff. He put them in a barrel of water to thaw out. About three hours he had to stand over. He went to bed and found that the pickled had thawed back to life, but he could find no shells.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT: On last Friday forenoon a young woman named Pierce, while pouring hot water in a frozen water pipe in Tighe's laundry, St. John, had her scalp from her eyes to the back of her neck torn off, by her hair becoming entangled in a revolving shaft. She was taken to the public hospital, Dr. Travers, with the detached scalp wrapped in a piece of paper, accompanied here. At the hospital Dr. Travers, Daniel and Emery applied the scalp to the head and it was hoped it would adhere, but it did not.

CONSTITUTION: In the Alma House on Wednesday, 18th January, Geo. Underhill was represented in the report of proceedings to have said:— "If the Government did not want to run the Alma House as a hotel, it should be sold to the proprietors, as they should be bound to take their place."

WHAT COME: Underhill did say to the "If the keeper did not want to run the Alma House as the Commission's duty, it should be sold to the proprietors, as they should be bound to take their place."

A FEW WORDS to be said by Mrs. Underhill at the carnival to-night.

"REASONABLE TO EXPECT: It would not be necessary to explain to a committee by a director of the North-western Agricultural Society, that the Committee is not responsible for the loss of the two cows that were kept at the establishment. It is a matter of fact that the Committee is not responsible for the loss of the two cows that were kept at the establishment.

"N. & W. COMPLAINT: Our friends at the N. & W. Railway will have heard of the recent case of the "N. & W. Complaint" which has been the cause of a great deal of trouble and expense to the railway.

"A S. JOHN: Our friends at St. John will have heard of the recent case of the "S. John Complaint" which has been the cause of a great deal of trouble and expense to the railway.

Church has consented to appear at the Carnival, as he wishes to meet and mingle with the people of Chatham preparatory to his lecture and in an exhibition on Friday evening at Newcastle. He will be accompanied by Miss I. Wilson, an Italian to come and lecture on the rights and wrongs of his people and his religious and moral and high moral principles of his race will be seen by citizens of Chatham.

MARRIAGE OF MR. N. H. RAY: The daily "British Columbia" of New Westminster, under date of 12th ult., thus refers to an event daily chronicled in another column: "The marriage of Miss I. Wilson, daughter of W. H. Ladd, of P. E. I., to Mr. N. H. Ray, manager of Ladd's Cannery, took place last night, at the residence of the bride's father. A large number of guests were present and witnessed the ceremony. When the golden rings had been tied and the exchanges over, the company sat down to a splendid wedding breakfast, during which the happy couple were toasted and many expressions for their future happiness conveyed in suitable speeches by the assembled guests. After the breakfast a dance followed, which was kept up till a late hour. The celebration was in the highest degree successful."

LOVE CLOUD will evoke the famous R-Ed Agency T.M. hawk pipe of peace as he skates at the carnival to-night.

OLD SODA: To the Editor of the Advance:—

DEAR SIR:—The recent issue of Old Soda in the "Advertiser" reminded me of the following anecdote which is in my possession:—

"A HERRING FISHERMAN, BUCKLELEIGH, 'THE HERRING FISHERMAN, LIVERPOOL, SEPTEMBER, 1855."

This volume containing the seven books measures 11x16 inches, and 3 inches in thickness. The typography is excellent and the materials at the binding of each chapter quite artistic. The plates also are good.

"COLLECTANA CHEMICA LEYDENIA CONTRACTA ET NOTATA A P. M. THRONIUS MIKENS, MED. DOCT. AMSTELÆDAMI 1822."

HUMAN ANATOMY: "W. CHESTERMAN'S THE EDITION LONDON. PRINTED FOR S. HIGH AND R. DODDLEY, 1796."

Also a work by John Mowbray, M. D., London. Printed for Stephen Austin at the Angel and Bible in St. Paul's Church-yard, 1730.

They are all in a good state of preservation. I am yours, J. B. BOSTWICK.

MIRAMICHI ADVANCE, CHATHAM NEW BRUNSWICK, FEBRUARY 2, 1888.

Divine Disgrace: A DISMOUNTED BY PRAYER—INTOLERANCE OF OPINION. The following is an extract from a late New York Tribune editorial: "There is, perhaps, no mental vice so common as intolerance of opinion. Even such things as the eluding defect of hard to acknowledge frankly to themselves that the opinion of some one else upon a matter they have considered may be as deserving of respect as their own. If it differs radically from their own. If we could all get rid of this 'last infirmity,' not only of 'mild' minds, but of nearly all human minds, how much less bitterness and heart-burning and envy and all uncharitable feelings, would be the result."

The Marriage Tragedy: The trial of Wm. Millman of Marquet, P. E. I., for the murder of Mrs. Mary Taylor, of the same place, is now proceeding at Charlottetown, and attracting universal attention.

On the 28th of June last the most atrocious murder which has ever been committed in the Province of P. E. I., was committed in the quiet settlement of Margate, L. I., by which Miss Taylor, daughter of Mr. John Taylor, lost her life.

On Tuesday evening Miss Taylor left her home, never to return alive. On Wednesday a party was organized and strict search made in the woods and also in the river. Saturday, while Thomas Cameron, one of the party, was resting on the west bank of the South Branch of the Margate river, about 20 feet from the water's edge, on the corner of which was worked the letter "M." This the mother recognized as belonging to her missing daughter. The body was not found until the evening of July 4th, when after a long search in the woods, it was found in Ed Creek, a branch of the Southwest River, only about 500 yards further up the creek than where the handkerchief was picked up. The body was discovered by Archibald Brydson, ten years and a half of water, about 100 yards from a large spring hole. There was a 100 lb. stone attached by a rope to the body.

There was an insect—a bullet was found behind the ear, and another in the skull. It was also discovered that she was a native.

William Millman, son of John Millman, of Ed Creek, aged 19, was arrested for the murder, and charged with it. He was an accomplice, but the latter was discharged. Millman's trial began last Tuesday, 24th ult., Judge Hinely presiding.
