SPORTING MATTERS

THE RING

FOUGHT TO A DRAW.

AUGUSTA, Me. Nov. 19.—Kid Francis of Portland and Jack Adams of Newton, Mass. went 12 rounds to a draw before the Athletic Club at City Hall tonight, in the fastest and most exciting exhibition seen in this city. Kid Shea of Hallowell put out Young Dallas of Brunswick in two minutes of the last of an eight round bout in the best preliminary ever seen here. Spin Mahoney gave perfect satisfaction as referee.

HOCKEY.

MONCTON ENDORSERS SACKVILLE'S STAND.

MONCTON, Nov. 19.—Sackville's stand regarding amateur hockey was unanimously endorsed at a big meeting of local enthusiasts tonight when officers in connection with the local team were elected and general prospects discussed. Officers elected as follows: Hon. H. R. Emmerson, honorary president; F. W. Sumner, president; Dr. C. A. Murray, vice-president; A. S. Donald, secretary; Joseph Bourque, treasurer; Norman Baird, manager. The matter of delegates to the annual meeting was not settled, the choice being left in the hands of the managing committee, but as the local team was not by any means satisfied with the dates the Victories were given the last season two delegates will be named before the meeting takes place. It was decided to recommend Irvine Malcolm of this city as the N. B. H. L. referee. A pleasant event took place in connection with the hockey meeting, when Charles B. Tritts, a former well known ball player, who umpired for a portion of last season, was presented by his admirers with a handsome silver tea service. E. W. Ferguson, secretary of the city league, made the presentation on behalf of the fans and players.

NEW YORK WOMAN TOOK AWFUL LEAP

Hurled Herself From Fifth-story Window

Held Umbrella Over Head—Made Excuse to Get Into Vacant Room.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Holding an umbrella over her head, a young woman hurled herself from the fifth-story window of a house in East 44th street yesterday. She had fallen 20 feet. The umbrella turned inside out and she was crushed to death.

The police have been unable to identify the woman, who is about 20 years old, and wore good clothing and jewelry. She died before the eyes of several onlookers who were in the room from which she had leaped. A man was waiting for her. Last night the woman called on Mrs. Emma O'Leary, janitress of the house. She wanted to view apartments on the fifth floor which she had seen advertised in a newspaper. Her husband, who escorted the woman to the rooms, she said she would return to his home, 64 Main street.

"It's the usual thing here to ask for a deposit," said the janitor. "Oh, that's all right," answered the visitor. Then, according to the janitor, she added: "Would you mind going into another room and get the money?"

The man murmured an acquiescence. She went into the next room and closed the door tightly behind her.

A sound was heard by O'Leary. He waited. When five minutes had passed, he became worried. He hid in the next room and saw the woman on the mantelpiece lay a woman's hat and a purse containing only 70 cents. Mrs. O'Leary screamed and ran down the stairs. She encountered a policeman, who had come up to investigate the identity of a woman who had jumped from the fifth story and been killed.

The International Sunday School Association has appointed Rev. A. Lucas, of the New Brunswick Conference, as special field worker to the West Indies and South America for six months. Mr. Lucas sailed from Halifax per F. B. liner Ontario on Nov. 17. He will spend about two weeks in each of the following islands: St. Kitts, Antigua, Barbados, Trinidad and about the same time in British Guiana. Calls of one or two days will be made at several of the most important islands of the Leeward and Windward Groups. Short stops will be made in Orinoco, Guayana, States of Colombia, Panama and Costa Rica, en route to Jamaica where he will arrive early in February. Several weeks will be spent between Jamaica, Porto Rico and Cuba, thence to Bermuda. This is a most interesting and important piece of missionary work. It is the beginning of a plan that is intended to assist the millions all over South America and the West Indies in their work among the young. Mr. Lucas is well fitted for the work to which he has been called, having had fourteen years experience in Sunday school association work in New Brunswick. We are sure that all who are interested in the salvation of the world will remember Brother Lucas in prayer in his important mission.

A SIMPLE MORNING GOWN.
617—Every woman needs a simple morning gown to slip on for breakfast with her Lordship or when she enjoys her "forty winks" in the afternoon and the very nature of the garment demands that it be unpretentious. Many women think that they cannot afford a gown of this kind because it must needs be expensive. On the contrary, as little may be expended as one wishes and a simple afternoon, challis gown or dainty may develop as pretty a gown of this kind because it must model shown in of pale blue silk with scallops of English embroidery at trimming. The round yoke is a becoming feature and the neck may be finished with or without the collar. One or two deep flounces on the bottom may be an addition to a tub gown of stitched folds for a warmer one. The saucy ribbon bows in the sketch are very pleasing. The gown is well adapted to home construction. In the medium size 71-2 yards of 38-inch material are needed.

SUITABLE TEXT.
The choir of a large metropolitan church had sung a Te Deum of a very ornate description, the end of which was not only complicated, but required the exertions of the full lung power of the chorister. While the echoes of the last notes were still faintly sounding, the minister arose and in a clear but semi-approachful tone began to read the twentieth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, of which the first words are "And after the uproar was ceased."
