Having promised to keep an eyr on the first the cases, the color commercial affairs and anticel of archite course, to should move that the control of the color of the color of the purpose of examining into the part operation; but under existing circumstances thought it best to adopt the proposition of the noble date.

The Lord Chancellor said the effect of his noble and learned friend's (Lord Wyndford's) amendment, however desire the content of the Shamou and with the control of the Shamou and the state of the Shamou and water to be sent the improvement of the Shamou and water to be sent the improvement of the Shamou and water to be sent the improvement of the Shamou and water to be sent the proposition of the presents of the Shamou and water to be sent to be read a second time on Pridage, and the circumstances allowed by his noble and learned friend's amendment, would cause to be issued an illegal maximum. A bill being a negotiable security, who could say with of those presented to be sent to be sent to be secured to be sent to

The state of the control of the cont

Falla, His Excellency is to continue his tour westward.—Montreal Gazette.

QUERRE, Angust 9.

REPORTED RECAL OF SIR JOIN COLLORER.

The Exchange Register vesterday contained the following report, which is generally believed to be, in the main, well founded:—

"It is runnoured and very currently believed that Sir John Colborne has received a communication from Ministers, stating that they are about to nominate a Civil Governor to the Government of this Province, leaving it optional to him to remain as Commander of the Forces; and that as Sir John declines to remain on those terms, He will leave for England so soon as his successor arrives."

To the foregoing statement, the Mercary of yesteriday adds—

Other reports go further, and name the Earl of Clarenden as the successor of Sir J. Colborne.

We know not on what ground the nomination of his Lordship to this bigh and important office is founded, but those are circumstances, particularly the recall of the Noble Earl from Mantrid, where he was Ambassador, which render it far from improbable that he is the states and selected for this archious task. It will likewise.