Mrs. E. S. Carter went to Fredericton last Saturday, and will visit her parents at "Linden Hall" for some weeks.

St. John friends of Mrs. Baylis (nee Miss Sarah Dinwoode), will be interested in the following from the Montreal Star of June 4th:

The rector of Longueuil, Rev. J. G. Baylis, and his wife, received a pleasant surprise in a visit from one of the church wardens and two or three others on the eve of their wedding. The surprise lay in the leaving behind them a small box with a card of congratulations, marked "From friends in Longueuil," the box containing 25 silver coins, covering a roll of bills, and a handsome silver watch, a substantial proof not only of the sincerity of the congratulations on the event named, but also of the cordial relations which have existed between all in Longueuil and the rector and his wife during their residence there.

Flats! Flats! Lighthouse flats, colored, flat shades; in the popular Flat Shaped American Flat Factory, Cor. Sydney and Leinster Sts., City.

Dr. Smith is confined to the house with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Miss Bessie Parker returned from Wolfville college on Saturday.

Mrs. A. S. Jones and Mr. LeB. Jones went to Wolfville last week to attend the commencement exercises; Master Jordan Jones returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Murphy are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a little boy stranger.

Mr. Arthur Hillyard, of New York, is visiting here.

Tuesday evening the children of St. Peter's school gave a pleasing entertainment in St. Peter's hall. It is safe to say it was the best entertainment of the kind ever given in the North End. The children reflect great credit on the sisters, by whom they were drilled for the occasion. The first part of the programme was an operetta called A Floral Overture. In this was introduced a pretty little song, "We are the flowers, the gay young flowers, that grow in the sunshine and April showers." The children's drill was an excellent exhibit. The Cinderella of Nations, a drama, in one act, and The North Wind in Fairland, a cantata, were well rendered.

PEANITS.

JUNE 10.—All the flags in the city have been half mast during the week, as a mark of respect to the deceased premier, and this afternoon all the bells were tolled.

Mr. F. B. Edgcomb's store windows are draped in mourning.

Hon. A. G. Blair left on Monday night for Ottawa to be present at the funeral of Sir John A. Macdonald.

The June weddings have commenced. The first one took place this morning at the early hour of six o'clock at St. Dunstan's church, when Mr. J. H. Barry, the well-known barrister, and Miss Bessie Owens, youngest daughter of Mr. J. C. Owens were made happy for life. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. McDevitt.

The bride, who looked particularly well in a handsome travelling costume of blue broadcloth, was attended by Miss Maudie Mace, Woodstock, and Mr. Barry was supported by Dr. J. G. Owens, of Millville, brother of the bride. After breakfast at Mr. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Barry left on their bridal tour to Boston and New York, followed by the good wishes of their many friends.

On their return they will occupy rooms at the Barker house. The presents were exceedingly handsome, as well as useful. Mr. Barry's gift was an elegant diamond pin, Mr. and Mrs. Blair sent a handsome silver card receiver.

I believe at last we are to have a little bit of gaiety in the celestial city. The officers and attached officers to the barracks are going to give a dance to the tennis club on Tuesday evening in the mess room. I understand the invitations will include a very few outside of the club.

Tomorrow evening there will be an ice-cream social in the old Kirk, and a dance and supper will be furnished by the F. O. M. club orchestra.

Miss Botsford has returned home from St. John. Judge Wetmore still continues very poorly.

Mr. Geo. E. Fenet, who has been doing missionary work in the south, with a severe cold, is improving rapidly.

Mr. Geo. Ward is also quite ill.

Mr. Miles Dixon, of St. John, spent Sunday in Fredericton.

Mrs. McKean is here from Montana, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Havelock Coy, on Charlotte street.

Dr. Cohen is expected home from Philadelphia on Saturday.

Col. Herliet is expected here sometime during the month to inspect the I. S. Corp.

Mr. Geo. W. Babbitt, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has been transferred to the St. John branch.

Mr. Rowley is acting leader of the agency here.

Rev. Robert Atkinson of Pictou, N. S., will preach in St. Paul's church Sunday evening.

Mr. Crockett will leave tomorrow for Vancouver.

Rev. A. B. Boyer, who graduated from the N. B. university in 1881, and has since been doing missionary work in India, died yesterday here.

Major Gordon spent the day and Monday with his family here, and returned yesterday to Halifax. He expects to be back to his duties here at the end of this month.

ST. STEPHEN.

[Progress is for sale in St. Stephen at the book store of C. H. Smith & Co., and G. S. Wall and H. Webster.]

JUNE 10.—Yesterday afternoon, Mrs. W. W. Clarke invited a number of very young ladies to a garden party, from five to nine o'clock, it being the occasion of her little daughter's birthday. Supper was served at seven o'clock, after which dancing and the exciting game of coach, made the hours fly fast. It was a very happy party, everyone enjoying themselves greatly.

Through the kindness and invitation of Mrs. A. C. Jones a small party of her friends enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon and picnic supper, by the river side, several miles below town on Monday. It was the first picnic of the season, and such a delightful one, that those who were there hope it will soon be repeated.

I hear there is to be a wooden wedding at the residence of one of our young and prominent citizens one evening next week, to celebrate the fifth anniversary of the wedding day.

Miss Bertha Smith is visiting friends in St. John. Miss Jessie Whitlock left yesterday morning for Boston, to remain until the autumn.

Capt. Hugh Douglas spent last week in St. John.

UNDINE.

JUNE 10.—Wolville never presented a finer appearance than this year. The exercises at the closing of the college were of a very high order, and were all so very to see only one lady graduate in so large a class. Among the distinguished visitors, I noticed Attorney General Longley, of Halifax, Hon. W. M. Chute, of Bear River, Mrs. Thompson of Baie Verte, Mr. and Mrs. Whiteman of Antigonish, Mr. and Mrs. Croft of Yarmouth, Mrs. Harding of St. John, Mr. and Mrs. Eaton, Halifax, and many others.

Mr. Black was the guest of Prof. Kierstead, Prof. Higgins entertained Mr. Williams, of St. Martin's.

The concert of the Halifax, Mrs. Thompson, Baie Verte, Miss Burnham, St. John, Mr. and Mrs. Tuffs, Kingston, were entertained by Prof. and Mrs. Tuffs.

The concert disappointed many, the music not being so good as they expected, "Ave Maria" and "The Shadow of the Deep" being the only two pieces worth mentioning. The reader, Mr. J. H. Hardman, who was called on to sing, was very capable of "The Little White Rose" but unfortunately his selections were of too light an order.

DIGBY, N. S.

JUNE 9.—The event of the past week occurred on Wednesday morning at Trinity church, when Miss Fanny Gopitt and Mr. F. Young were married. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Dr. Ambrose. The rain fell heavily, yet the church was well filled with the friends of the young couple, who are universal favorites. The dresses of the bride and bridesmaid were plain travelling costumes. There was a decided display of good taste and simple elegance. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. H. B. Short was groomsmen, and Mr. George Burton gave the bride away, her father being unavoidably absent. The church was decorated with rare flowers; so skillfully arranged were the masses of brilliant color that they were a sight to behold. The bride, being produced. As the bride party walked down the aisle, the church bells rang out their congratulations, and the sun's glorious rays shone forth. Mr. and Mrs. Young left at once for Halifax, where they will spend the honeymoon. They will reside here on their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Digby Bonnel and family, also arrived and intend passing the summer here.

Mr. D. Bonnel has leased the house owned and formerly occupied by the Hon. Judge Savary, who now resides in Annapolis.

Mr. H. P. Smith has returned from a short visit to St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch have returned.

Miss Maud Crozier who has been in Boston all winter is here, and will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. DeLahall.

Mr. Allen Wade has arrived with his charming bride, who will remain here for some time.
