government which it gives to the country. Meanwhile there will be cabinet makers throughout Canada who would have done differently had they been in the position of the Premier.

"For ourselves we are bound to say we believe that the new government will give a most excellent account of itself. Of the personnel of the Borden government it can be said that it is one in which the country may cheerfully repose confidence."

THE MONTREAL GAZETTE.

Montreal, Oct. 10.—The Gazette will say tomorrow: "The cabinet which Mr. Borden has formed bears evidence in its composition that, like practically all cabinets, it is in part the result of compromise.

"So there are absent from the cabinet list some names that had been generally looked for, while included as holders of portfolios are some whose preferment was not expected so soon.

"The list as it stands includes a goodly number of capable men."

After briefly relating the accomplishments of the various members the editorial continues:

"There are, therefore, in the new government men who have shown that they know how to do things that count. In their new former are, therefore, in the confidence that has been placed in them."

THE TORONTO GLOBE.

Princhard of New York, the alients, to understand that Russell's mind was dranged. Mr. MacMaster then dubbed the deeting at the Windsor Hotel on Oct. 20 as the "Committee of Safety" and said it was remarkable that if and it will be the wilding serious was intended none of these their counts of these took with Mr. Russell were called in. but that they had here tested his doctor and friend Dr. West-level and the were called in.
