Around the City

Detained. Thomas Martin, a private in the 104th Battalion, was in the city on leave Saturday and during the afternoon he was located by Detectives Barrett and Briggs in a moving picture theatre and was heard by the officers to use some pro-German talk to a friend. The private was escorted to police headquarters by the officers and is detained there pending an examination by the military authorities. Sergt. Blair on Way Home. George A. Blair received a telegram yesterday from his son, Sergeant Kenneth Blair of A Section, No. 1 Field Ambulance 1st Contingent, to the effect that he had arrived in Quebec and would be in St. John today or Tuesday. Sergeant Blair has seen some heavy fighting in France, having been with the late Captain Duval who died from wounds. Sergt. Blair has been ill in a hospital in England for some time and owing to his illness has been sent home. Presentation to N. B. Man. The nine years' service of Frederick C. Harper, Seattle, as collector of customs in the State of Washington, brought an expression of appreciation from his former associates recently, when he was presented with a beautiful gold watch and fob by the 150 employees, embraced in the customs service throughout the State and also included the Treasury Department employees of Seattle and Collector R. M. Drumheller, successor to Mr. Harper. Mr. Harper is a native of Bellefleur, Westmorland Co. Baxter Trophy Presented. The Royals of the Fairville Baseball League, who won the Baxter Cup during the season just closed, were presented with the trophy at a meeting held in Fairville on Saturday evening. Councilor John O'Brien occupied the chair and the cup was given to the winning team by Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, the donor of the cup. In making the presentation he spoke of the good resulting from clean baseball and other athletic pursuits, and he congratulated the winners on their work for the season. The remainder of the evening was given over to other entertainment features and a pleasant time was spent. Soldiers Entertained. Over three hundred soldiers of the 52nd Battalion were present at the evening service in St. David's church. After the service they were the guests of the brotherhood of the church, at a song service and social hour, at the close of which coffee and cake were served. A cordial welcome was extended to the soldiers by Bruce S. Robb, on behalf of the brotherhood, and this was responded to, on behalf of the soldiers by Bugler Sergeant Taylor of the 52nd. On Thursday evening, throughout the season, while the soldiers are in the city, the Young People's Association will entertain the soldiers with singing and a general good time, at the close of which refreshments will be served. Opportunities will be given for letter-writing, reading, games and entertainment of all sorts on these evenings. Throughout the season the brotherhood will entertain the soldiers every Sunday evening, at the close of the evening service. All soldiers are cordially invited to the church on both evenings, and it is hoped that as many will be present every time as where there is the first time.

SOLDIER DIES SOON AFTER HIS ARRIVAL HERE

Pte. James Stewart Brown a victim of pneumonia — Funeral Tuesday.

Members of the 52nd Battalion, and especially those in D Company, learned with the deepest regret of the death of Private James Stewart Brown of that company who died during the afternoon at the General Public Hospital. Private Brown contracted pneumonia shortly after the battalion left Port Arthur but his condition was not thought serious until the battalion had nearly reached St. John. The ambulance was summoned and the soldier was conveyed to the hospital at three o'clock yesterday afternoon and three hours after he was admitted to the hospital he was dead. The deceased was a Scotchman and only 41 years of age. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning at nine o'clock from Brennan's undertaking parlours and the soldier will be buried with military honours.

UNITED STATES LOSING A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Rev. Dr. Morison speaks of advantages American people are losing.

Rev. Dr. Morison delivered a splendid address last evening on "Britain, the Servant of God," in the First Presbyterian church, West St. John. He first mentioned the sacrifices we are making in giving our boys to this great cause, because it is God's war or, otherwise termed, the powers of evil against God.

Quoting Goldsmith, he told of the preparation and material prosperity of Greece through the words, "Ill fares the land to hastening ills a prey, where wealth accumulates and men decay." His next point brought out the actions of the United States in respect to their silence by saying, "The time will come when the citizens of America will see to their shame that this reserve and caution of the Wilson Administration has forever lost to them as a nation, the grandest opportunity ever afforded to a great and influential people to strike a blow for humanity that would have echoed and re-echoed throughout the world and down the ages, adding glory to glory."

Next he spoke of the intrigues of the Germans in the foreign courts of Europe. The king of Greece is acting under instructions from his wife, the Kaiser's sister, but as to how long the people of Greece will stand for this remains to be seen. Their treaty calls them to give aid to their allies, the Serbs, and when the people of Greece learn that kings are made for the people and not the people for the kings, likely a great wave of patriotism will be shown. The king of Bulgaria has also proved a traitor to his people and representatives of the Kaiser have been found in the employ of the Russian government.

Suspected of Stealing. Ernest Northrup, a teamster, was arrested on Saturday night by Detectives Barrett and Briggs on suspicion of having broken into the warehouse of Jones and Schofield, of Nelson street. A hole had been broken into the warehouse and near the hole ready for removal were several tubs of butter. About this time a year ago a large quantity of butter had been stolen in the same manner from this warehouse.

COMFORTABLE QUARTERS FOR THE SOLDIERS

Exhibition building being fitted up for sleeping — Housing 500 there now.

The quarters for the 52nd Battalion in the southeast wing of the exhibition building are rapidly nearing completion. The ground floor has been fitted with about five hundred berths and by Tuesday night the upstairs and floor will be ready to accommodate the balance of the battalion. A and B companies have been assigned their quarters in the portion of the building already completed. The other two companies, C and D, are temporarily occupying the armory. They will be moved into the exhibition building as soon as the carpenters have finished. Contractor Bates has a large crew of men at work and the operations will be carried out with despatch. He expects to complete the work by Tuesday night. A Standard reporter visited the quarters of A and B companies last night and found the men very comfortable and well satisfied with the provision made for them. The building has been sheathed inside and there were nine large self-feeders doing business there last night. The room was warm and dry and the men were making themselves at home in their new quarters. When the balance of the work is finished there is no doubt but that the boys of the 52nd will be as comfortable as could be desired.

REV. MR. HAUGHTON STRONGLY CONDEMNES SOCIAL SNOBBERY

Forceful sermon on a matter of great importance — A few comparisons.

The aristocracy of manhood versus social snobbery or the kingdom of democracy, was the subject of an interesting and timely sermon by Rev. Ralph J. Haughton in Congregational church last evening. The church was well filled and the preacher's words were heard with deep feeling by those present. He took his text from Matthew which says: "And they were astonished and said, Whence hath this Man this wisdom and these mighty works?" He told of the greatness of Christ and pointed out that Jesus had been born in a stable and was cradled in a manger. This Jesus, whom men revere and love and adore, was once a poor ordinary boy, the son of a humble carpenter in the little town of Nazareth.

The same snobbery exhibited concerning Christ is often manifest today. There are still persons who believe that by reason of a special dispensation of God's favor they and theirs are the chosen people. Rev. Mr. Haughton made special reference to the work of the men of the 26th Battalion, who had cut themselves off from home and friends to fight for us. These had been referred to as "common boys," but he thanked God for the common boys, who did not fail to respond to the call of duty when it came to their hearts.

Mr. Haughton referred to many great men, who had come of lowly birth. He told of many instances where snobbery had been brought to his attention. "Many of the boys who marched away last June with the 26th Battalion, were not society pets perhaps," said he. "They did not mingle in select drawing rooms, but I tell you that those fellows, who, when asked to go forward to that German crater on the thirteenth of October last to do a necessary and perilous work and responded as one man, offering to lay down their very lives if necessary to save your home and mine from the iron heel of German despotism, those fellows are infinitely nobler than many a society fop."

"In Jesus Christ we have the aristocracy of manhood. That is the real and true aristocracy."

EDGAR MARCH AMONG THOSE IN HOSPITAL

His brother Dudley writes of injuries to Lieutenant March on Oct. 13.

The first intimation that Lieut. Edgar March of the 26th Battalion had been wounded while in the trenches was received in a letter from Private Dudley March of the 6th Mounted Rifles on Saturday. Dudley March stated in the letter that he had learned that Lieut. March had been wounded on the 13th of October and had been taken to a hospital in France where he was being treated for a wound on the shoulder. No official news has been received by Mrs. March, the Lieutenant's mother, nothing more than the news received in the letter is known in the city. It was rumored some days ago that Lieut. March had received a slight scratch on one of his arms while in the trenches, but that the injuries were not of a nature that would oblige him going off duty.

FAMOUS SWORD FOR COL. FOWLER

Was carried on march of Old 104th from Fredericton to Quebec.

Of all the meetings held in this city in the last few months in connection with the splendid recruiting campaign, the somewhat formal function planned for next Friday night in one of the big meeting places of the city, promises to stand out as most interesting, particularly as to its historic value. A few days ago in a cleverly conceived window decoration in M. R. A.'s establishment, the sword carried by Lieut. William Barry Phair of the old redoubtable 104th Regiment, was placed on exhibition along with many other relics of that intrepid band of volunteers.

This sword has been purchased outright and will be presented to Lieut. Col. George W. Fowler, M. P. of the new 104th New Brunswick Battalion in perpetuation of the battalion number and of the spirit which impelled the men of this loyal province to take up arms in defense of their home and flag.

Lieut.-Col. Fowler feels pleased and complimented that such a time-honored and illustrious relic should be bestowed upon him and his regiment, and a promise to wear the weapon throughout the career of the new 104th in the present struggle. Friday's affair will also take the form of another recruiting rally with the sword presentation as central idea. Arrangements are being made for speakers of more than local repute and those who are familiar with the plans of the meeting are enthusiastic about it.

The sword which has been secured for presentation to the commander of the 104th Regiment was carried by Lieut. Phair on the famous march of the 104th Regiment from Fredericton to Quebec in 1813. This was during the regime of bias between the United States and Canada and although New Brunswick's population was less than 50,000 it raised that splendid old regiment. Afterwards, it offered its services to the British government as a regiment of the line at which time it received its number. It was in the latter part of February, 1813, that the 104th left Fredericton for Quebec. Indian scouts proceeded to the trail and the trails and meeting shelters for night stops. During this memorable march one of the bitterest storms in the history of the country overtook the brave New Brunswickers, bringing about great suffering.
