This valuable little compend of Methodist doctrine and teaching was written at the request of a committee, met to select a course of study for the use of normal and bible classes in our Methodist Sabbath Schools. It should be in the hands, and in the heads and hearts, of all our Methodist young people.

CHURCH ENTERTAINMENTS.

TWENTY OBJECTIONS.

By REV. B. CARRADINE, D.D.

In this book the writer vigorously attacks the ordinary and the extraordinary form of Church entertainment. Those who do not believe in such entertainments will have their convictions strengthened, and those who do uphold them may have their convictions weakened by its perusal.

Price 50 cents, Postpaid.

THE BOOK FOR THE HOUR!

JESUS THE MESSIAH

In Prophecy and Fulfilment.

BY

REV. E. H. DEWART, D.D.

DR. MENDENHALL, the learned Editor of the Methodist Review, says:

"This is a triumphant defence of the historic and triumphant in the Christian faith, and Rationalistic criticism."

N.B.—Every minister and preacher should read this book carefully, and judge for himself as to the truth and force of the facts and arguments with which Dr. Dewart vindicates the historic Christian faith in Messianic Prediction and Fulfilment, and refutes destructive negative speculations.
