

- tion of minimum scale, 764-71; attitude of State Department, 769-71; difficulties relating to provincial restrictions on export of pulp wood (q.v.), 764, 766-69, 771; Ottawa talks, 767-71; formula for avoidance of tariff war agreed on by Taft and Fielding at Albany, 771-76; schedule of tariff reductions, 773-74; exchange of letters, Knox-Fielding, 773-76, 778; minimum tariff extended to Canada, 776-78; usefulness of informal procedures illustrated, 781
- Tariff Act, Oct. 3, 1913, removal of duty on fish, 485-86, 488, 491, 493
 - tariffs and trade: Canadian trade diverted from US to Britain, 238; British Empire recognized as separate trade unit, 256, 757; trade and steamship communication with West Indies, 702; trade with Canada, 756-98 (main entries under reciprocity agreements; US, Tariff Act); trade with France, 759-61, 763; trade agreement with Japan and its relation to immigration, 612, 737, 744-46, 748; agreement with Cuba, 760, 764; agreements with Germany and Italy, 760—see also the war, below
 - treaties with various states—see treaties, conventions, agreements, UK-US; US and other states
 - the war, 1914-18: aid to Canadians in distress, 68-69; Canada's wartime competitor in foreign markets, 59, 75-76, 88-90; foodstuffs from Canada, 88, 91; British shipbuilding orders in US and their effect on Canada, 63-64, 66, 85, 144; effect of ship requisitioning, 145; possible retaliation against blockade, 140-42, 144; war contracts, 117, 140 (see also war orders); drift of Canadian workmen to US, 151; agreement with UK on purchase of war supplies, 179-80; wartime financial policy toward Canada and UK, 137, 172, 177, 179 (see also war finance); military service convention, 180, 180n, 181-87, 189-91, 191n, 193, 200; manpower crisis, 193, 322; co-operation with UK in control of raw materials, 329; Borden asks information on US war effort, 358; peace terms, 214, 217
 - see also British Embassy, Washington; State Department (US); names or titles of US government officials
- Uruguay, taking of fur seals, 548, 579-80

V

- Valcartier, 47, 49
- Vancouver, immigration, immigrants, 615, 626, 661, 663; steamship service from Calcutta discussed, 621, 630, 641, 646, 662 (see also immigration, Indian, Section C, Komagata Maru incident, passim); Japanese consul, 645
- Vancouver Island & Straits, 384, 403, 444
- Venezuela, commercial treaty, 261, 264, 264n
- Vermont Senators, opposition to Boundary Waters Treaty, 377
- Versailles, Allied discussions preceding peace conference, 214, 218; Canadian delegation, 219-20; Supreme War Council, 318
- Vickers Canadian Co., 59, 63, 66, 85, 155
- Victoria, B.C., 546, 626, 655
- Vigilant*, 837
- Vimy Ridge, 314
- Virgin Islands, 702
- Vladivostok, despatch of Canadian troops to, 206-9, 211; Canadian civil representative for, 211; commercial commission, 212-13, 215-17
- Vladivostok Sub-Committee (UK), 210

W

- Wai-chiao Pu, 640, 640n
- Wai-wu Pu, 594, 594n, 598, 600-2, 604-7, 640n
- Walbran, Captain, 401
- Walcott, Henry Barclay, 698
- Walker, W. H., Acting Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs, 87, 625
- Walker claim, 800
- war, 1914-18, general, 37-221; notice on outbreak of, 38; termination, 221
- conduct of, Canadian criticism of direction, 104, 104n, 201-3; relation of military to civil authority, 139, 161-62, 194-95, 199, 201-2; 1917 discussions between UK and Dominions Prime Ministers, 304-5, 314-16, 334-35; arrangements for continued discussions, 319—see also Canada, national status, conduct of war; Canadian Expeditionary Force, casual-