THE REPORTER

ATHENS, ONT., JULY 21, 1891

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen—Local Amusements—Solid Right Down.

He sat at his door at noonday. He was lonely, gloom and sad. The flies were buzzing about him. Led by a blue-winged god.

Not a customer beckoned forth. Not a sign of business was there. But the flies kept on buzzing. About the old man's hair.

At last, in misery he shouted: "Great Scott! The corner with flies!" And the paper that lay with his spilters.

"Why don't you advertise?" Read "The People's Column."

Send 25c and get a trial of the Reporter for three months.

Cash paid for Sage at Wilson & Son's.

Miss Allie Lamb was visiting friends in Brockville last week.

Binder Twine, Binder Twine, Binder Twine at G. W. Beach's.

Dr. Judd, of Montreal, is in Athens this week.

Mr. C. Phillips took up his abode at his cottage at Charlton Lake last Wednesday.

A reaction in favor of Parnell, the Irish leader, is said to have taken place in Ireland.

Be sure and get prices of Binder Twine at G. W. Beach's before buying.

Miss Bella Driffin, of Newboro, has been appointed superintendent of a hospital in Philadelphia.

Dr. H. H. Stone and family of Durhamville, are spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Stone, Eliza St.

Miss Jennie Davidson is spending a two weeks' vacation at her sister's, Mrs. Stewart, of Smith's Falls.

You can buy a one hundred piece colored dinner set for $7.50 at the China Hall, Brockville. T. W. Denis, opposite Central Hotel, Main St. 28-1.

The Salvation Army had an open air meeting at Charlton on Sunday which was well attended by the lake-dwellers.

The Athens branch of the W. C. T. U. will meet at the residence of Mrs. Fisher on Wednesday of this week at the usual hour.

Mr. N. C. Williams is doing a rushing trade since buying the livery. All his horses are first-class drivers, and his rigs are kept in good trim.

The undertaker's bill for draping the stations from Ottawa to Kingston on the occasion of the funeral of Sir John Macdonald, amounted to $2,700.

The directors of the Kingston, Smith's Falls and Ottawa railway will lament the fact that Premier Abbott says no railway subsidies will be granted this year.

The Smith's Falls News will not be issued this week. It is customary among country papers to drop an issue during the year and the News takes its holiday this week.

Go to G. W. Beach's for the celebrated D. & A. Corset. I warrant every pair of these corsets to give satisfaction or return the money after ten days.

In company with Mrs. R. B. Alguire, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Alguire, and Miss Sarah Griffin, of Brockville, are this week at Camp Lookout, Charlton.

Mr. Justus Smith keeps his boat-house closed on Sundays this season, and there is in consequence a marked decrease in the number of boats made Charlton a Sunday resort.

Miss Byers wishes to inform the people of Athens and vicinity that she has removed her Dressmaking Rooms, over Mulvey's hat store, where she hopes customers will find her.

"The People's Column" in the Reporter is being better advertised every week. The people have come to look upon it as the source of very useful information and watch for the different items each week.

Many people are complaining that their potatoes will be a failure, as all the growth seems to have gone to the tops. A load of old potatoes would find ready sale in town just now at a handsome price.

Mrs. Hoover of Columbus, Ohio, is at present on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. D. Fisher, Victoria Street. It is 18 years since Mrs. Hoover was in Athens and notes with pleasure the substantial progress of our little town.

Miss Bertha Loverin and Messrs. Blake, Howard and Miss Edie Halladay are this week enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Phil. Halladay, of Elgin, at her summer home, Sunset Bay, Jones Falls.
