

"The Life and Works of Michael Angelo." By Chas. Christopher Black. With an introduction by Charles G. Whiting. This volume contains an admirable account of the life labors of this famous sculptor, painter, architect and poet.

This series will form an excellent addition to any home library for young people, whether Chautauquans or not.

Our Sunday-School Periodicals for 1886.

WE are thankful for the greatly increased patronage of our Sunday-school periodicals during the past year. We hope for the continuance in still increased measure. We believe that our several periodicals will be more helpful and more interesting than ever before. Neither money nor labour shall be spared in making them the best, the most attractive, and the cheapest lesson helps and Sunday-school papers in the world.

OUR NEW PAPER—HAPPY DAYS has been a great success. We are glad to announce that we will issue with the new year, regularly, our new Sunday-school paper, HAPPY DAYS. It will be of the same grade and same size and price as the SUNBEAM, and will be issued on alternate weeks, so that, with our four papers, schools will have one for every Sunday, both for senior and primary classes. This will meet a long felt want which has been frequently expressed by many schools. We hope that all our schools will rally to the support of this new paper. It will be the handsomest juvenile paper ever issued in Canada. No school should order any other or foreign periodical for advanced or primary classes without seeing the specimens of those of our own Church, which are sent to every Sunday-school superintendent in the Connection. Any who do not soon receive them will confer a favour by writing for samples, which will be sent free.

HAPPY DAYS is issued every fortnight, single copies, post free, only 15 cents a year; twenty copies and over, 12 cents.

THE SUNBEAM,

The companion paper to HAPPY DAYS will be brighter, better, and more beautiful than ever, with a superior grade of pictures, and will be issued every fortnight. It is just what the little folk of the primary classes need—full of pretty pictures, short stories, poems, and easy lesson notes.

SUNBEAM, every fortnight, when less than twenty copies, 15 cents; twenty copies and upwards, 12 cents.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL BANNER

will continue to adopt every improvement that can be desired for increasing its efficiency as a teacher's help. A series of attractive frontispieces to each number, giving full page engravings of some striking scene in Bible lands, will be presented, and also, as opportunity offers, smaller engravings on the text. In order that every teacher in every school of the Methodist Church may have the aid of this unsurpassed teacher's monthly, its price will be uniformly sixty cents a copy, whether taken singly or in any quantity. This gives the individual teacher an equal advantage with the school which can take a large number. Thus
