FIGURE NO. 187 T.—This illustrates a Ladies' costume. The pattern, which is No. 8572 and costs 1s. 8d. or 40 cents, is in thirteen sizes for ladies from twenty-eight to forty-six inches bust measure, and is shown in three views on page 266. Etamine in a gray-green tone, bottle-green velvet and white chiffon are here charmingly united in the costume. The back is in stately Princess style, following the outlines of the figure perfectly and falling in graceful flutes in the skirt. In front the three gores completing the skirt are joined to the lower edge of the body and an underfolded plait at each side-front seam produces the effect of a broad box-plait at the front, the skirt flaring in Consuelo style. The front of the body is quite fanciful in effect, showing a wrinkled, tapering plastron of chiffon that is extended in a round yoke at the top to meet a full, round yoke arranged above the Princess back. The fronts have gracefully disposed fullness and follow the outline of the plastron, and a circular Bertha droops in two sections from their upper edges and is continued to the center of the back, where its ends flare. A stock of etamine topped by a gathered frill of narrow lace gives a beautifying touch. The large puff sleeves are given a novel effect by downward-turning and upward-turning flaring cuffs that are deepest at the back of the arm. The trimming of white lace insertion and edging and bottle-green satin ribbon enhances the elegance of the costume.

LADIES' COSTUME, HAVING BOLEROS (THAT MAY BE OMITTED) AND A THREE-PIECE SKIRT GATHERED AT THE BACK. (TO BE MADE WITH FULL-LENGTH OR ELBOW PUFF-SLEEVES.) (COPYRIGHT.)

As a gown of ceremony the mode will be developed with a low neck and elbow sleeves of rich brocade or satin, and numerous combinations will suggest themselves to the modiste for a carriage, visiting or afternoon costume.

No. 8563.—This costume is again represented at figure No. 202 T in this number of THE DELINEATOR.

The attractive style of the costume is well displayed in the present development, which unites embroidered grass linen with silk crêpon in the shade known as Yale-blue, the crêpon being arranged over yellow silk, percaline or some other desirable lining
