

Biscay Bay lieth about $1\frac{1}{2}$ Mile to the Eastward of Mutton Bay, the Entrance of which is about one Mile wide, and about two Miles deep; in it is from nine to three Fathom Water, sandy Bottom, but is quite open to the Sea. Biscay Bay.

From Mistaken Point to French Mistaken Point the Course is N. ~~S. by~~ W. Distance 2 Miles. French Mistaken Point.

From French Mistaken Point to the Powles the Course WNW. Distance 8 Miles. Powles.

The Land from Mistaken Point to the Eastward tends away ENE. one League, then NE. by E. $1\frac{1}{2}$ Mile to Cape Race, which is Table Land, of a moderate Height, having a high black Rock lying close off the Cape, with several small low Rocks to the Northward of it. This Cape lieth in the Latitude of $46^{\circ} 42' N$. Cape Race.

From Cape Race to Cape Ballard the Course is NE. by N. Distance three Leagues: nearly one Mile to the Southward of Cape Ballard, lieth a high black Head, called Chain Cove Head. Between these Points is a Cove, and to the Westward of Chain Cove Head lieth Chain Cove, before which lieth a black Rock above Water. Cape Ballard.

Due East from Cape Race, and S. by E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. from Cape Ballard, lieth a Fishing-Bank, called New Bank, about 5 Miles long, and nearly 2 Miles broad; on it is from 9 to 25 Fathom Water. New Bank.

From Cape Ballard to Renowe's Rocks the Course is N. 20 E. Distance 2 Leagues. These Rocks are small, of a moderate Height, and lie one Mile from the Main Land, and are bold too. Renowe's Rocks.

From Renowe's Rocks to the Harbour of Renowe the Course is N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. Distance $2\frac{1}{2}$ Miles. This is but a small Harbour and hath not above 15 or 16 Feet at Low Water; it is but an indifferent Harbour, having several Rocks in the Entrance, and the South-East Winds heave in a very great Sea. To fall into it, you must keep the North Shore on board. Renowe's Harbour.

Fermouse Harbour lieth about $3\frac{1}{2}$ Miles from Renowe's; between these Harbours lieth Bear's Cove, off of which lieth a funken Rock, about a Cable's Length from Shore. Fermouse Harbour is an exceeding good Harbour, there being no Danger in falling into it. The Entrance is not more than a Cable's Length wide; just within the Entrance, on the North Shore, is a small Cove, in which a Fishery is carried on, but no safe Place for anchoring. About $\frac{1}{4}$ of a Mile farther in, on the same Side, lieth another Cove, called Admiral's Cove. In this Cove the Merchants Ships generally ride, in 7 or 8 Fathom Water, Land-locked. About one Mile farther up the Harbour is a Cove, called Vice-Admiral's Cove. On the South Side is the best Anchorage Fermouse Harbour.
