Ottawa 8th June, 1909.

With cheque.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 19th ultimo,
I enclose herewith cheque No 324 for $29.21 for Julia Blackbird, (Mrs Achewatch, whose maiden name was Julia Lacelle). The cheque represents her share of her late father's estate. Michael Lacelle, Julia's brother, has informed the Department that the woman, who is now married for the second time, is probably known by her first husband's name, which was Blackbird. Kindly see that she receives the money, and also that she fully understands why it is paid.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
