

DEVIL'S HEAD CANYON.

A short but romantic canyon on Devil's Head Creek. The bridge crosses about the middle of the canyon, affording a splendid view of the rocky walls and the emerald water of the creek.

Canyon near Banff

SUN DANCE CANYON (2½ Miles).

A remarkable rift in the rocks through which Sun Dance Creek finds its way. The road to this point leads past the Cave and Basin.

SULPHUR MOUNTAIN OBSERVATORY (7 Miles).

A small stone building on the second peak of Sulphur Mountain, containing the Canadian Government Meteorological Station. A well-made pony trail leads from the Upper Hot Springs to the Observatory, and the view is one that ever lives in the memory.
