

(iii) Indorsement of Address, Etc.

11.—(1) Where a plaintiff sues by a solicitor, the writ of summons (or notice in lieu thereof), shall be indorsed with the solicitor's name or firm and place of business, where service may be made.

(2) Where the solicitor issuing a writ of summons is only agent of another solicitor, his name or firm and place of business as well as the name or firm and place of business of the principal solicitor shall be indorsed. C.R. 134.

12.—(1) Where a plaintiff sues in person, there shall be indorsed upon the writ or notice in lieu thereof, his place of residence and occupation.

(2) If the plaintiff's residence is more than two miles from the office in which the proceedings are commenced, there shall also be indorsed an address for service within that distance. In default, any paper not requiring personal service may be served by mailing the same to the plaintiff at his address, by registered letter. C.R. 135.

13.—(1) The solicitor whose name is indorsed on any writ of summons, shall on demand declare forthwith whether the cause or matter has been commenced by him or with his authority or privity. He shall also, if demanded, disclose the profession or occupation, and place of abode (giving name of street and house number where practicable) of the plaintiff. In default the action may be stayed and the solicitor may be directed to pay the costs.

(2) If the solicitor declares that the writ was not issued by him or with his authority or privity, an order may be obtained ex parte directing that all proceedings shall be stayed, and thereafter no further proceedings shall be taken without leave. C.R. 143.

14.—(1) Where an action is brought in the name of a firm or in a name or style other than the plaintiff's own name, the plaintiffs shall, on demand, declare forthwith in writing the names and places of residence of all the persons constituting the firm, or carrying on business under such name or style.

(2) If the plaintiffs fail to comply with such demand, all proceedings in the action may, upon an application for that purpose, be stayed. C.R. 144.
