

life, the witness of all your actions. Respect him, thank him for his loving care, but at the same time ask him to help you. He is powerful, he may surely obtain for you a great many graces. Each man has an angel, and that angel will remain with him till the very last hour of his existence. Always retain in your memory what we now tell you, and may the devotion to your guardian angel be the token of your final perseverance.

French pronoun " Le "

Le representing a noun taken in general is translated by one.

Exc. : Je ne suis pas capitaine, mais j'aimerais à l'être.

I am not a captain, but I should like to be one.

If the noun is taken in particular le is translated by so.

Ex. : You were my printer and you are so still.

Vous étiez mon imprimeur, vous l'êtes encore.

N.B. A noun is taken in general, when it is not accompanied by a determinative-adjective.

Le is translated by so in the following examples and their like.

Ex. : You are soldiers, we would like to be so.

Vous êtes soldats, nous aimerions à l'être.

They are brave, you ought to be so.

Ils sont braves, vous devez l'être.