

ness passed away on March 2, 1902, sincerely mourned by all who knew him.

The Rev. Mr. Mallinson's successor was the Rev. W. W. Craig, M.A., the present rector. The Rev. William Woodham Craig is a son of Mr. Alexander Craig, of this city. He received his early education at the Montreal High School, and graduated in arts from McGill University in 1895, and in theology from the Diocesan College in 1897. He was first curate at St. Martin's Church, and subsequently became curate of Trinity Church, St. John, N.B., whence he returned to assume the rectorship of St. Luke's Church, preaching his first sermon there on Sunday, May 18, 1902, and being formally inducted on the following evening.

Among the clergymen who have held appointments at St. Luke's, the following were graduates of the Montreal Diocesan Theological College:—The Rev. Messrs. Rexford, Houghton, Sweeny, Cross, Rogers, Cunningham, Mallinson and Craig.

An interesting part of the religious exercises at St. Luke's, as in all Anglican churches, is the musical portion of the services. St. Luke's, in fact, was, in its palmy days noted for the excellence of its music. The late Mr. H. Arnold was long connected with the musical affairs of the church, and was one of the earliest leaders of the choir. Several of his daughters sang in the choir and one of them, who afterwards became the wife of Mr. R. S. Caldecott, of Toronto, was known beyond the boundaries of this province as a sweet singer.

The late Mr. William Powell was one of the organists of this church. He married a daughter of the late Mr. John Robb, biscuit manufacturer, of this city. He subsequently went to Halifax, N. S., to reside, and died there. Another of the organists was Miss Hoerner, now Mrs. Walter Thorndoe. She was also a vocalist of some note. Another organist was Mr. Ernest Sumner, who now holds a similar position in a church at Highland Park, Chicago, Ill. The present organist is Mr. W. J. Laminie, B.A.

St. Luke's Sunday school has always been considered one of the most important departments of the church's work. The first superintendent was Mr. Raffin. He was followed by Mr. J. C. Macdonald, and exceedingly good and capable man, under whom the school made much progress.

Mr. R. Stapleton Caldecott succeeded him. He was also a good administrator, and under his direction the school flourished perhaps more than at any other period in its history. Mr. Caldecott was with T. J. Claxton & Company, in Montreal. He severed his connection with the school when he went to Toronto as head of the firm of Caldecott, Burton & Co. He still resides in Toronto, where he is well-known in connection with the temperance cause. He is also a
