"It is beautifully printed and magnificently illustrated.
... Almost every sculptured stone of interest and note is given, and this of itself makes the book a valuable one.
... The original part of the theory presented in this book is the belief entertained by Dr. Wise that Buddhism has sprung from Druidism to Buddhism, and converted the natives from Druidism to Buddhism."—Spectator, lviii, 818.
"A monument of grievously misdirected industry and ingenuity."—Acad., xxvi, 428.
