

Where my fairest and I, on its verge as we pass,
For 'tis she that must still be my theme,
Our two shadows may view on the wat'ry glass,
While the Fish are at play in the stream.
May the herds cease to lowe, and the lambkins to bleat,
When she sings me some amorous strain ;
All be silent, and hush, unless echo repeat
The kind words, and sweet sounds back again.
