The Rev. J. Cooper Robinson during 8 months of deputation work gave 240 addresses or sermons to congregations averaging about 200. We are sure God will use his visit to Canada to impress upon the Church her duty to the heathen.

Before this issue is in the hands of its readers some five days will (D. V.) have been spent, and a number of addresses given by the Rev. J. C. Robinson, returned Missionary from Japan, in Lindsay and neighborhood. We trust that interest in this great work of evangelizing the heathen will have been deepened. It is amazing how slow many Christians are to obey the commands of their King. A passing circus or a sensational trial will give many people more to think and talk about than all God's mighty works which are to-day being wrought in heathen lands. Brethren, this ought not to be.

The Rev. Canon Richardson, of London, took the duty at Sturgeon Point on September 1st, and preached an able sermon to a large congregation. He goes in a few days to Montreal to attend the Provincial Synod.

The Sunday School service held on August 11th was fairly well attended (not as well as the S. S. picnic) and the scholars joined heartily in the service.
A short address was given by the Superintendent, Mr. Peter, on Faith and Obedience, while the rector spoke to those present on the lesson of the day, "The Brazen Serpent." The collection was for the floating debt and amounted to $5.
