falls on the battlefield, if it is humanly possible to reach him, he is no longer left in the open with nothing to remind him that he is alive save the insupportable agony of his wounds.

He is gathered in to the care of Red Cross, and from that moment everything that human tenderness, humane surgery and the solicitude of the best men and women on earth can do for him is his until he can again resume his place among his own. Will you think of the Red Cross before anything else at Christmas?

CAN YOU FORGET HIM AT CHRISTMAS?

"Out in 'No-man's-Land' with no companionship save the everlasting jangle of hell's orchestra."

Let 'Em Do It

Geraldine Farrar, the grand opera singer, was asked a short while ago how she stood on the votes-for-women question.

"I don't stand at all," she replied, and then told a story about a farmer's wife in Connecticut who, hurrying from milking the cows to the kitchen, from the kitchen to the churn, from the churn to the woodshed, and back to the kitchen stove, was asked if she wanted to vote. She vehemently replied:

"No, I certainly do not. I say now, if there's one little thing that the men folks can do alone, for heaven's sake let 'em do it!"

Too Fast For Him

A Georgian from up in the mountains came to town on his yearly trip with a wagonload of corn, sweet potatoes and other produce to exchange for groceries. As he approached the city limits he saw a sign: "Speed Limit 15 Miles an Hour."

Poking his oxen frantically with the stick he muttered: "By golly! I don't believe we can make it."
