DUBLIN, Sept. 12, 1883.—The cautious and statesmanlike policy of Mr. Parnell, in which Mr. Davit has heartily joined, is rapidly bearing fruit in Ireland, and continues to disconcert his Liberal and Tory opponents. A grand programme has been arranged for the autumn and winter to more completely organize the national movement. There are to be suc-cessive demonstrations at Waterford, Mal-low. Carriek on Shannon. Cork. Ennis. cessive demonstrations at Waterford, Mal-low, Carrick-on-Shannon, Cork, Ennis, Belfast, Mullingar, Tipperary and other centres. Mr. Dillon has postponed his journey to Colorado in order to attend the meeting at Tipperary. The platform throughout all these meetings will be the same as at last Sunday's meeting at Cap-pamore, to the effect that legislation is required to secure to the Irish laborers adequate garden plots and comfortable homes. The league will also insist on an extension of the land act, enabling occupi-ers to become owners by purchase by in-stalments covering a long period. It will also be proposed that members of Parlia-ment be paid. Both the government and the Tory press denounce the proposals as ment be paid. Both the government and the Tory press denounce the proposals as revolutionary, and tending to a renewal of a condition of anarchy. The league intends to make the greatest possible demonstra-tion for the purpose of arousing the people to the home rule policy. Under the assumption that they will kindle hostility to viceregal rule and result in mob violence, the cabinet has already decided to have the principle of these meetings attended by a government reporter.

His candid te has an excellent prospect. The demonstration at Waterford last Sunday was grand success. Over 30,000 persons attended and the meeting was very enthusiastic. Michael Davitt re-ceived a warm welcome at the hands of the citizens generally. The meeting ment for Ireland, not only in name butin reality, and declaring that Ireland must have that which England, by the necessity of the time, granted to Canada because Canada was rebellious. The adoption of the resolutions was greeted with loud cheers. Michael Davitt, in his speech, denounced the land act as entirely inade-quate to the needs of Ireland. He statud that not one-sixth of the land cases had yet been heard, and that when they had Lorge JU. The size of the land cases had yet been heard, and that when they had quate to the needs of ireland. He stated that not one-sixth of the land cases had yet been heard, and that when they had been all settled the reduction of rent would not amount to £1,000,000. The mayor of Waterford presided at the banquet in the evening. The mayor, a number of priests and many leading citizens who have hitherto kept out of politics at-tended the Galway meeting, which was also a successful affair. The tone of the speeches was very radical but not illegal. Michael Davitt said that the object of the league was to achieve national independ-ence for Ireland. Richard Power, M. P. for Waterford city, replying to the toast, "Ireland as a Nation," described England as a nation insulted by France, hated by Europe and harrassed and embarrassed by Ireland. As regards the second I have to state that owing to a variety of causes the system of farming pursued in the vast number of farms in Ireland is such that

By his orders the ani-mal was shot and salted, and part served to laborers in the harvest field. All those who ate of the meat were taken sick and have since died. The physician who at-tended them during their illness testified in at that he believed the deleterious sub-stance was conveyed in the beef. It seems as if there will be a very active autumn campaign. Extreme Radicals are preparing to contest all the great boroughs in England at next election, even in oppo-sition to Liberal candidates of the old school. A programme issued by Mr. Pank-hurst, Ultra-Radical candidate for Manchester, is a type of the rest. It comprises the abolition of the House of Lords ; adult manhood suffrage; payment of members of Parliament; disestablishment of the Church; abolition of Parliamentary oaths; secular, free and compulsory education and local self-government for Ireland. When Mr. Pennefather, who occupied the chair, had explained the purpose of the gathering, Mr. O'Hagan advanced and read the following address, which was signed by some of the principal which was signed by some of the principal members of St. Joseph's congregation :--To JAMES W. MARENTETTE. Esq., Снатнам.

DEAR SIR,-Learning that you are about to leave our town, the members of St. Joseph's Church, with their Rev. Pastor, Father William, have assembled here this evening to testify to the high esteem in which you are held, both as a devoted son of St. Joseph's and a worthy citizen. Since your boyhood you have shared your talents and your social instincts freely with the good people of Chatham; yes, more, you have bequeathed to them the example of a courteous gentleman, a good and trustworthy friend. We beg, therefore, to express to you out We beg, therefore, to express to you our deep regret at your departure, and assure you of our earnest wish for your future success and happiness. Your severance from Chatham will be felt keenly by our esteemed pastor, Father William. The choir of St. Joseph's Church has lost its accomplished leader, and the members of the C. M. B. A. the counsel of a wise and trusted horther. In every canacity in trusted brother. In every capacity in which your varied talents were employed, which your varied talents were employed, you have proved yourself an earnest and faithful worker. Be pleased, therefore, to Mrs. Marentette this Rosary—tokens of our warm regard for yourself and your read lady good lady. May the cane accompany your every footstep along the sure and pleasant paths of happiness, and the Beads tell the stars of grace that shine from the firmament of your happy lives! your happy lives! The presentation of the gold headed cane, valued at $40, was made by Mr. Tetrault, and the rosary and gold cross, presented by Father William, accompanied with a next energy in relative built of the presented by Father William, accompanied with a neat speech, in which he closed by saying : "Be kind enough to present to Mrs. Marentette this rosary wreathed by pearls and gold to remind her of prayer, and centering in a cross the emblem of hope and future happiness." Mr. Maren-tette replied in feeling terms to the address, thanking the good people of Chatham for their expressions of good will towards him, and assuring them that he would not soon forget the "caning" they had given him. Speeches and songs followed. Messrs. O'Neill, Craddock and Pennefather did honor to the bar, the lat-ter of whom made a very happy speech.

curred to mar the round of happiness that marked the cheerful outing: Last Sunday evening Rev. Fr. William delivered an excellent sermon on "The Infallibility of the Pops." Father Wil-liam spares no pains to instruct his con-gregation on the dogmas of our Holy Church, which he explains eloquently, simply, and in no spirit of controversy. The result is that St. Joseph's Church is crowded every Sunday evening—many of whom belonging to other congregations are pleased to hear the great truths of Christianity so ably expounded. The Chatham C. M. B. A. is in a flour-ishing condition. Mr. Heffernan, the popular President, is an energetic and able officer, while the society has no warmer friend in Ontario than the spirit-ual director of Chatham Branch—the Rev.

Marentette was banquetted and caned in the presence of a delighted concourse of his friends at the Catholic presbytery. Mr. Marentette's departure from Chatham is a great loss to Catholic society. He will be greatly missed in Church circles, social circles and progressive circles.
