THE MYSTERY SOLVED .- It is authentically stated that the missing man Hector Munro, the bero of the River John tragedy, on account of whose unaccountable absence, Cameron of River John was arrested but was afterwards set at liberty, is alive and well. At the time of the greatest excitement consequent on his disap-pearance from River John, he was at Pugwash, but afterwards went to Sackville, N. B., where he remained all winter, working this spring on the Eastern extension railway, At Sackville he was known by the name of John Murray. Mr. John Murray of Earltown, who is employed on section 11 of the Intercolonial Railway, and who knew young Munroe, hearing that the young man had been seen at Sackville, went over there last week to enquire for him. He had no difficulty in finding him, and immediately informed his family of the fact of his being in that place. We are informed that the young fellow tells a long and very incomprehensible story to account for his strange conduct.
