of the Heart, Trembling of the Hands and Limbs, Loss of Appetite, Energy or

It acts with vigor, gentleness and subtlety, owing to the exquisite harmony of its ingredients, akin to pure blood itself. Its taste is pleasant, and les effects permanent.

Its first apparent effect is to increase the appetite. It assists digestion, and causes the food to assimilate properly—thus the system is nourished. It also, by its tonic action on the digestive organs, induces more copious and regular evacuations. The rapility with which patients take on flesh while under the influence of the Syrup, of itself indicates that no other preparation can be better adapted to help and nourish the constitution, and hence be more efficacious in all depression of spirits, shaking or trembling of the hands or body, cough, shortness of breath, or consumptive habit. The nerves and muscles become strengthened, and the blood purified.

READ WHAT THE INVENTOR, MR. FELLOWS, HAS TO SAY ABOUT HIS SYRUP OF THE HYPOPHOSPHITES.

In the summer of 1864, I was suddenly effected by a copious expectoration of muco-purulent matter. I had been declining in health for some months, and, being exceedingly nervous, the symptoms caused alarm. As my business was that of a dispensing chemist, the shop was constantly visited by medical men, all of whom tendered their advice. During 1864 and 1865 my chest was examined by ten first class physicians, some of whom pronounced the case Bronchitis; some, not wishing to cause alarm, or unwilling to venture an epinion, gave no decision; some stated unequivocally that I had Tubercular Disease of the Lungs, and located the trouble where the pains were felt. By professional advice, I used, in turn, horse-back exercountry life, eggs and ale in the morning, tonics, Bourbon whiskey, cod-liver oil. electricity, tar, and various inhalents, but the trouble increased. Expectoration bee me more profuse and offensive. Night-sweats set in. Cold chills, diamben, dystrices, cough, blood-streaked expectorations, loss of sleep, loss of appetite, less of riemery, less of ambition, accompanied by general prostration, showed thems less. Under the microscope the blood was found to contain but a small portion of vitalia d corpueles; the heart's action was feeble; the pulse intermittent; the stomach could not the strongerly, so that flatulency and acidity was the result. Finding the symptoms indicated Consumption, I determined to use every effort to stay its progress, and, if possible, to cure it. I selected the most powerful tonics and moderators, and combined them with the vital constituents of the human body. For months I end v ored to amalgamate them before my efforts were crowned with success. I amade speak too plainly or too strongly of the effects produced, and the benefit, I ed from the composition. as n st my appeare increased; the expectoration became easy, digestion better: the faces became more copious and less frequent; cold chills ceased; night-sweats lessened; I gained in weight; the hacking cough left me; refreshing sleep returned; my spirits became buoyant, the mind active and vigorous. I continued taking the Syrup month after mouth; but owing to the damp, foggy climate of St. John, my recovery was necessarily slow, although I could observe a gradual return of strength for three years, during which time I continued taking the remedy. My present weight is one hundred and eighty-eight, being thirty-one above my usual. I have no sympto us left denoting disease. The only notable sign aring twelve months was the expectoration. Now that he stopped, and I consider myse well. The reader may ask, How do you know - ar difficulty to have proceeded from ulcerated or tuberculated lung? I answer, In the most certain of all modes for ascertaining. In March last I coughed from the right lung a piece of PHOSPHATE OF LIME, half the size of a pra, which could have come from no other place, and which the highest authority in Lung Diseases (Laennec) states is the result of tubercle, which has been cured. Added to this, I had the leaden-colored, purulent, blood - streaked expectoration, and the opinion of one of the best diagnosticians in the country. I believe I have experienced all the symptoms incident to the two first stages of Consumption, and have successfully combatted them, so that I do not despair of any case where there is left sufficient lung tissue to build upon. I can only add that the mere monetary consideration of increased sales would never induce me to publish this report, but a sincere sympathy for the poor Consumptive, with whose misfortune I believe it villary to trifle.

WONDERFUL CURE OF DROPSY

LIVER COMPLAINT. SACKVILLE, N.B., March 10th, 1880. C. GATES, SON & Co :- Gentlemen-For over two years I have suffered from Dropsy and Liver Complaint, and was reduced very low; could not walk across the room. In the meantime I had consulted all the doctors around, wherever I was, but they did nothing that helped. But still I grew worse until my life was dispaired of; my neighbors looked for my death at any moment, when your agent J. Ford, gave me a phamplet, in which I saw my complaint described. He gave me the medicine, which I took, the No. 2, and 3 LIFE OF MAN BITTERS and No. 1 INVIGORA-TING SYRUP, with the Nerve Ointment and Vegetable Plaster, in all six bottles and in six weeks I was almost well; in ten weeks I was strong and able to work, and to-day weigh more than ever I did in my life. I am a wonder to myself and all that saw me before I commenced taking your medicine and since. I do thank God for your medicine in my case. I can and have freely recommended your medicine to all afflicted as I have been. JONATHAN ATKINSON. Sworn to before me at Sackville, N.B. this 10th day of March 1880. JOHN FORD, J.P.
