The Echo.

A rate-payer sat down in joyful mood,
As joyful as he could be,
For it was his chance to unfold his knowledge,
To the people of not Y's three.

His nerves, strung high, they began to run wild,
Like the rabbits, the teacher made lame,
Likewise did his knowledge, till it got to the top,
And fell o'er into ignorance and shame.

He spoke of the teacher as good for naught,
But to shoot and sit in his chair,
But let him look in the mirror, and also around,
And he'll find such are not rare.

He reminds me of a Sunday School teacher,
Whom the ladies thought not very fair,
And used to empty his mouth of tobacco,
Just as he knelt down to his prayer.

The teacher can ride on his bicycle,
And which, I say, is no disgrace,
But the poet who writes such poetry,
Might wish to be one of the race.

He needs to blame the trustees,
Keep on the right not the left,
Kneel down to repair his character,
For the jewels seem taken by theft.

And although the teacher soon goeth,
To leave the ignoble set,
We shall surely forgive the ratpayer
Who filled with cowardice, he never can forget.

Now every one of us have our faults,
The father as well as the son,
And the fool doth return to his folly,
As the dog to his vomit hath done.

Belmore.

Lane and Lane have got in another large stock of Furniture.

A social was held in the Presbyterian Manse on Wednesday last and had a very good time. Proceeds amounting to about nineteen dollars.

Mr. John Hartley of S. S. No. 18 Howick, held his examination on Friday Nov. 25th where there was about one hundred and fifty visitors, among some of the guests were Messrs. Spotton, McEwen, Montgomery, Gemmill, Dunlop, Powell and Mitchell, who took part in examining the classes. There was also recitations, choruses, solos, etc. Mr. Hartley deserves credit for the way in which he has trained up his scholars. He has left nothing undone. He goes to Toronto Normal school after New Years. We wish him good luck.

On Saturday, Dec. 7th, the members of the O. Y. B. met in their hall when the following officers were elected for the next year:

W. M.—J. A. Fleming.
D. M.—D. H. Marshall.
Sec.—John Abram.
Treas.—Willie Hall.
Fin-Sec.—James Merkley.
Chap.—John Campbell.
D. of C.—Joe Hall.
I. T.—T. Douglass.
O. T.—J. Adams.
Lecturer—John Mulvey.

1st and 2nd com.—Hugh Douglass and M. Hartley. After the election the officers were installed. This lodge meets the first Saturday in each month.

GORRIE.

Miss Owen, who has been giving lessons in oil painting here has returned to her home in Belgrave.

Mrs. S. A. Seaman has gone to join her husband in Uncle Sam's domains, where he has secured a good situation as operator on a railway. Their household effects were disposed of by auction on Saturday last and brought very good prices.

Municipal matters promise to be lively at the coming election. Mr. A. Dulmage of Lakelet is in the field for reeve and at least two others are spoken of.

Mr. Wm. Doig, who has been confined to bed with typhoid fever during the past three weeks is making slow progress in improvement as yet.

Is it not wonderful the number of would-be poets among the ratepayers or Howick? Judging by the attempted practical effusion in last week's GAZETTE one would be assured that the fool killer had not finished his work yet.

Conductor Snider delivered his lecture "Queer People" in the town hall on Monday evening under the auspices of Court Gorrie No. 57, C. O. F. The attendance was not as large as the court would have liked as the proceeds are not up to the expenses.

Misses Adam Lucas died at her home here on Saturday last after a week's illness from peritonitis. Deceased was 45 years old and had resided here for a number of years. The family and relatives have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Lakelet.

The Lakelet stone chopping mill will run the last four days of each week at 8c. per bag. People from the east turn at the Hotel corner and those from the west at Dulmage's Store.

A. W. Halladay.
The Kickapoos are coming to our burg. The small boy says "won't that be fine." We trust they are a respectable, well behaved crowd. We do not see how they are going to take much money out of this hamlet though. They will hold forth in the I O G T hall.

Mr. Dulmage lost his dog the other day. It was shot out beyond Clifford, he having followed Mrs. Dulmage, the other day to Mt. Forest.

This morning as we pulled out of bed Mr. S. Logan of Huntingfield was here hunting for men to saw wood. They must be early risers in that north town a thing which we cannot boast of here.

Mr. J. T. Cook of Southampton is in the burg these days visiting his relatives. Our carpenter is having an excellent seasons work. He is one of the greatst geniuses in the county. He can make anything from an axe handle to a mansion.

Mr. Dulmage is to be a candidate for the reeveship of Howick for '96. He has served the township for many years and would be a competent person at the head of its affairs.

Quite a number from here went to Gorrie on Monday night to hear Conductor Snyder.

Every effort is being put forth to have the Christmas tree in connection with the Episcopal church here a success. It comes off on 23rd inst. The young people are practising hard for it and they will be worth listening to. The admission is only 15 and 10c. Try to be present all who can.

We were pleased to see Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Findlay of Mildmay at our concert on Friday night. They remained in the burg all Saturday noon. It is always the way, anyone coming here is so taken up with the place that it is with difficulty they depart. Eh, Ed?

Never in the burg was there a more disappointed crowd when on Friday night at 8 o'clock the members of the I O G T had to start their concert without Mr. Pearce of Paisley on whom they so much depended. They intended that he would take half the program but he never appeared nor has he yet sent word of his whereabouts. The rest of those we engaged came and rendered invaluable assistance. We never had better instrumental music in the hall than that given by Misses and Mr. Ritchie of Belmore. The Ruttan brothers sang several times and were also acknowledged excellent. A. W. Halladay, our comedian, in his first song brought down the house, it was worth at least 15c. The club swingers Misses Ross and Powers of Clifford were new here and were well received. Mabel and Garnet Wright sang nicely together and delighted the audience. Miss E. Mahood rendered her recitation in a pleasing manner, and Willie Wright shone brilliantly as an amateur. The affair passed off fairly well. The proceeds amounted to $26 26, which tells for itself the admission being only 15 and 10 cents.

My six-year-old daughter, Bolla, was afflicted with eczema for 24 months, the principal seat of eruption being behind her ears. I tried almost every remedy I saw advertised, bought innumerable medicines and soaps, and took the child to medical specialists in skin diseases, but without result. The doctor advised the use of Chase's Ointment, and since using the eruption has all disappeared, and I can confidently say my child is cured.

The model school term began Sept. 1st and ended Dec. 18th. During the last week the candidates were examined in Methods of Instruction, Theory of Education, School Law, Physiology, Music, Calisthenics and Practical Teaching. This examination aggregated 1100 marks and 550 were required to pass. Of the candidates who passed only 2 took under 600 marks, 84 of them took over 650, 17 of them over 700, and 7 took over 750; 1 candidate took within 8 marks of 800 and another within 7. One candidate had a senior leaving standing, 24 had passed the Junior Leaving examination and 26 the Primary.

If all the model schools of the province are conducted as efficiently as the Walkerton and Kincardine schools, the model school training may be considered one of the admirable features of our educational system. Without this training persons would enter upon the responsibilities of a teacher as apprentices, but with it as journeymen, and in the great majority of instances as journeymen of whom we need not be ashamed. Many persons are of the opinion the time has now arrived when the model term should be extended to about a year instead of 8½ months as it is at present.

W. S. CLENDENING,
Sec. of the Board
Walkerton, Dec. 16, '95.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT.

The lake at Southampton has been lowering at the rate of an inch a week for the last three months. A slab nailed on to the pier level with the water, is now 14 inches above the surface.

There will be two full moons this month for the first time in 1896 years, so say the Adventists, who predict the second coming near the approaching holidays.

Ex-President Harriston receives a larger sum for his articles on "This Country of Ours" which he is writing for The Ladies' Home Journal than has been paid to any public man in America for magazine work of a similar nature. His article in the Christmas number of the Journal sold over 100,000 extra copies of the magazine, of which 725,000 copies were printed as a first edition.

While threshing at Mr. Johnston Kidd's, on the 3rd Maryboro, a few days ago, Mr. Albert Riddolls, in turning the cylinder to start the machine for the engine, got his right hand badly lacerated and had a very narrow escape from being drawn in and mangled in the machine. As it is he will be laid up for several weeks.

Albert Richard, son of Mr. C. A. Richards of Tara, took two first prizes at the No. 2 Company Rifle Match in Kincardine on Thanksgiving Day. He scored first on the 100 yard range and first on the totals.
