THREATENED WITH PARALYSIS

Peter E. Summers relates his experience: "I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay in bed, indolent and despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shivering, eyes blurred, hair loss, memory poor, etc. Numbers in the hospital were told the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class methods, but received no benefit. I was induced to consult Dr. Kennedy & Kennedy, though I had lost all faith in medicine. When I consulted the NEW METHOD TREATMENT and it was explained to me as it is, I could feel the vigor going through my system and I felt better physically. I have sent them many patients."

WALKERTON.

"We've a great crop of weeds" said a Brant farmer when asked how the crops were, and a trip through the country verifies this. The farmers are not troubled so much with mustard as they are farther south but they have the sow thistle and it seems to be making considerable progress. The Ox-eye daisy is also increasing very rapidly and some fields are being overrun with it. A little care on the farmers' part and some energy on the part of the weed inspectors would result in good to the neighboring municipality and this is the proper time to get busy eradicating them.

A young farmer from near Chepstow was arraigned before Magistrate Robb on Tuesday charged with being insane. Dr. L. Sinclair, insanity inspector for this section, was present, and after a thorough examination the young man was declared insane and ordered by the Magistrate to be committed to the asylum. From the evidence, it would seem that the unfortunate man had been subject to fits, and these are thought to have been largely instrumental in deranging his mind. He was removed home until such time as a ward can be secured for him in the asylum.

John Fisk, formerly of Hanover Lakes neighborhood, who was convicted of killing an old rancher in Alberta was hanged at Calgary on Wednesday morning. An appeal for clemency or a new trial was made on a plea that Fisk was convicted largely on the testimony of an accomplice. The Governor-in-council declined to interfere in the execution and the sentence was executed.

Rev. Mr. Kellerman, the new pastor of the Evangelical Church has arrived from College and will enter upon his duties here on Sunday. Mr. Kellerman will find a welcome in Walkerton, not only from his own people, but from other citizens as well.

6 Year Old Girl

Cured of Kidney trouble.

Mrs. Alex. Morre, of James St., Oxford, N. S., says: "Booth's Kidney Pills cured our little daughter, Cristain, age six years, of many symptoms of kidney weakness. She complained of a sore back, the kidney secretions were frequent and uncontrollable, especially at night. Her stomach was weak and her appetite poor. This caused her to have frequent headaches, and the least exertion would tire her. We had tried many remedies, but she did not improve. Finally we learned of Booth's Kidney Pills and purchased a box. In a short time she was well and does not now complain about her back, the kidney secretions have become normal, and she plays around the house with no apparent fatigue. We always recommend Booth's Kidney Pills."

Booth's Kidney Pills carry a guarantee that if you derive no benefit your money will be refunded. Booth's Kidney Pills are a specific for all diseases of the kidneys and bladder. Sold by all druggists, 50c. box, or postpaid from the R. S. Booth Co., Ltd., Port Erie, Ont. Sold and guaranteed by John Coates.

Items of Interest.

In the two largest cities in America there is a vast loss of baby-life. In New York during 1910 over 16,000 babies died of preventable diseases. In Chicago during the same year 3,500 children died. And in all other cities the proportion of deaths was practically the same.

Those that are close observers cannot fail to notice the signs of an early Dominion election. Voters' lists on the rolls of 1910 are being printed at Ottawa and preparations made for taking the vote. Just now, it looks as if the Government had made up its mind to be ready for an appeal to the electors on short notice. From a Government official comes the word that the voter's lists can be ready by September 25th, should it be decided to have an election before winter sets in.

On June 17th, 1812, ninety nine years ago, the United States declared war against Great Britain. The war was terminated by the ratification of the Treaty of Ghent on Feb. 17, 1815, although the treaty of peace actually had been signed in the previous December, before the most important battle of the war had been fought at New Orleans on Jan. 8. Since then there have been no hostilities between the countries, and it is proposed to celebrate fittingly the one hundred years of peace. May war's dark shadow never again loom up between these great English-speaking nations.

Here is a recipe for a vacation:—Take a sun-glass and blister the back of your neck; allow 1,000,000 mosquitoes to bite you; sleep on a cedar grating; pour a bushel of dust over your best clothes, and throw all your money except 35 cents into the river. You can do this in one afternoon without leaving home.

Potato Famine in West.

Brandon, Man., July 2nd.—Following the report of a potato famine in Winnipeg, prices have taken a sudden jump here, where there is the same scarcity as in Winnipeg. Up to the time of the big jump in price in Winnipeg, potatoes had been selling here at a dollar a bushel. It is quite likely that consumers will be compelled to pay from $1.50 a bushel up until new potatoes come in. The bulk of the supply is imported potatoes, which have been coming in for some time past.

Farmers generally agree that the weather conditions are not the best. Warm, damp weather, with very little rain, continues and the growth is too vigorous. Heavy rain and cool dry weather would improve things greatly.

At the experimental farm they say everything is favorable and there is no cause for alarm. Rain would be welcome, especially on the highlands. The wheat is heading out pretty well, and the present indications are that the harvest will be a few days earlier than the average. The crop in this territory is very thick, having stood a lot, and in some places the plant is spotted at the roots, an unmistakable sign of lack of moisture.

Undesirable Holiday.

The Imperial Conference, now sitting in London, acting, there is reason to believe, out of deference to the King's wishes, has declared in favor of the celebration throughout the Empire of the anniversary of his Majesty's birth, the 3rd of June. So far as Canada is concerned the proposal is wholly objectionable. During the life of two generations the 24th of May has been observed in this country. This observance has been maintained, partly as an acknowledgement of personal worth, but mainly because the day comes at a most opportune season. It marks the opening of the period of warmth; it occurs after the rush of spring seeding is over, and before the pressure of cultivation of hoe crops begins; it is an ideal first summer holiday for both country and town. June 3rd fills none of these requirements. It is too late for a first summer holiday; it crowds upon the first of July; it breaks in on the school work on the eve of examinations; it comes at a time when hoe crops are in most urgent need of attention.—Weekly Sun.

The Town Tightwad.

The tightwad has a pile of wealth in safety salted down; he's gathered in the scads by stealth from every end of town. He's loaded down with bonds and stocks and mortgages and deeds; and when he takes his daily walks, some victim's bosom bleeds. The man who gets within his mesh no mercy need implore; he'll always have his pound of flesh, and look around for more. To add a dollar to his stack, he'd risk his granite head; he'd turn the widow from her shack, the sick man from his bed. I'd rather gnaw at husks and stones, or grovel in a den, than have a pile of shining bones that's wrung from needy men. When you have lost your wad of dough, and all your plans are wrecked, you then may to the poorhouse go, and keep your self respect. But if you torture folks in debt though all your grinding years, and rake in dollars moist and sweat, and blood, and woman's tears, you'll learn to hate yourself some day, when death is drawing nigh; and when they file your bones away, no soul will heave a sigh.—Walt Mason in the Star.

Fatal Shooting Accident.

One of the saddest accidents occurring in this neighborhood in many years happened at the home of Mr. Fred George, Con. 1, Arran, on Wednesday night, when his little son, Alec, 9 years old, met death by the accidental discharge of a gun. The loaded weapon had been left on a bench in the woodshed, when two kittens playing around, leaped on the bench and knocked off the gun which caused it to discharge. The load entered the eye of the little fellow, who was close at hand, and made its exit through the back of the head. The community sympathises deeply with Mr. and Mrs. George in their loss.—Tara Leader.

Must Have Local Trade.

When you send a wad of cash to the Departmental stores instead of patronizing the home merchant you give the latter a black eye. Before you patronize the outsider you should give the local business man a chance to supply your needs and if he cannot put out quantity and quality at as good a price as the "foreigner" then there might be some excuse for out of town trading but you are in duty bound to give the home man fair play at least. The towns and villages must have the local trade or they will die, as these municipalities retrograde so will the value of property in the surrounding district. There is no better asset to a rural community than a bustling, go-ahead town. This is self-evident and requires no further proof than our own daily experience. Before you send away another dollar ask yourself how you would like to be so treated if you were engaged in business?
