The total allotment of bonds of this issue will be limited to one hundred million dollars exclusive of the amount (if any) paid for by the surrender of bonds as the equivalent of cash under the terms of the War Loan prospectus of 22nd November, 1915.

The instalments may be paid in full on the 16th day of October, 1916, or on any instalment due date thereafter, under discount at the rate of four per cent per annum. All payments are to be made to a chartered bank for the credit of the Minister of Finance. Failure to pay any instalment when due will render previous payments liable to forfeiture and the allotment to cancellation.

Subscriptions, accompanied by a deposit of ten per cent of the amount subscribed, must be forwarded through the medium of a chartered bank. Any branch in Canada of any chartered bank will receive subscriptions and issue provisional receipts.

This loan is authorized under Act of the Parliament of Canada, and both principal and interest will be a charge upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Forms of application may be obtained from any branch in Canada of any chartered bank and at the office of any Assistant Receiver General in Canada.

Subscriptions must be for even hundreds of dollars.

In case of partial allotments the surplus deposit will be applied towards payment of the amount due on the October instalment.

The interest on the fully registered bonds will be paid by cheque, which will be remitted by post. Interest on bonds with coupons will be paid on surrender of coupons. Both cheques and coupons will be payable free of exchange at any branch in Canada of any chartered bank.

Subject to the payment of twenty-five cents for each new bond issued, holders of fully registered bonds without coupons will have the right to convert into bonds of the denomination of $1,000 with coupons, and holders of bonds with coupons will have the right to convert into fully registered bonds of authorized denominations without coupons at any time on application to the Minister of Finance.

The books of the loan will be kept at the Department of Finance, Ottawa.

Application will be made in due course for the listing of the issue on the Montreal and Toronto Stock Exchanges.

Recognized bond and stock brokers will be allowed a commission of one-quarter of one per cent on allotments made in respect of applications bearing their stamp, provided, however, that no commission will be allowed in respect of the amount of any allotment paid for by the surrender of bonds issued under the War Loan prospectus of 22nd November, 1915. No commission will be allowed in respect of applications on forms which have not been printed by the King's Printer.

Subscription Lists will close on or before 23rd September, 1916.

JOHN COATES

Druggist,

Mildmay.

Joseph Goetz, a butcher, of Hepworth was last week fined $300 and costs for having about his premises more liquor than the law allows a person to have for his own use. In all he had about $120 worth, and quite a variety too: Scotch whiskey, beer, gin, porter, etc. It is thought he was putting in a supply in preparation for Sept. 16th and after.

Assurances have been given by all the railway companies operating in the province—nine in number—that they will comply with the law in regard to the sale of liquor after September 16th. The Ontario License board has been in communication with the companies for some time past and has now received a reply from all to the effect that after September 16th, they will sell no liquor on the trains.

Hensall Men in Trouble.

Charges have been laid against Thos. Berry, a prominent horse man, and Reeve Fred Smallcombe, both of Hensall, as the result of a visit by County Constables Wallis and Pellow, who had been sent by the Temperance organization to search the driving shed and office of Mr. Berry. The Reeve is charged with unlawful interference, and Mr. Berry with a violation of the C.T.A. It is claimed that after the constables had seized 24 gallons of bottled beer, ten quart bottles of whiskey, also a ten-gallon keg of whiskey, and had it loaded into two auto cars, the Reeve arrived, and stated that he held the position of "justice of the peace," and gave orders that the goods should be at once unloaded, and returned to Mr. Berry. The constables claim that when they refused to take the Reeve's instructions he resumed a threatening attitude, and offered the auto driver more money to put the car back in the garage than he was proffered to take the liquor to the cold storage plant of Inspector Torrance at Clinton. When the keg was discovered Berry is said to have told the constables that it was "vinegar," and pleaded with them not to take it, but to make sure they secured a brace and bit, and are convinced that their suspicions were well founded.
