

EXPENSE or FENCE?

Which Do YOU Want For YOUR Money?

Most things sold through dealers cost more to sell than to make. So that every dollar you pay your dealer for fence brings you only 50c worth of actual fence value. The other 50c must pay selling expense. In other words, you give dollar bills for 50c when you buy fence the old-fashioned way. The new way—the most economical way—to buy fence is to

We the members of the Womans' Missionary Society and a few of our friends have gathered to-night to spend a pleasant hour with you as we hear you are soon to leave us and take up other duties. During the years you have been in our midst you have won our high esteem by your quiet and unassuming ways and genial companionship. We have felt we could always rely upon your cheerful and willing assistance in our W.M.S. work and always found you ready to do your part. We all know the death of your devoted mother has been a severe trial but the bible teaches us that glory in tribulation, knowing that tribulation worketh patience and patience experience and experience hope and hope maketh not ashamed because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us and though we cannot now read the meaning of our tears sometime you yonder we will meet our loved ones and "There, up there we'll understand it all."
We feel we cannot fully express what your friendship has meant to us who know you best, but as an evidence of our appreciation of you and our corresponding secretary we beg you to accept these gifts and trust you may always think kindly of your many friends here.
May God bless you and give you strength to labor for Him.
Signed on behalf of the W.M.S. Mrs. Andrews, Pres.; Mrs. Fitchett, Miss Elsie Eggleston, Rec. Sec.; Mrs. R. Stapley.
