But Prohibitory Law, Well Enforced is Ultimate Goal, Says Bishop Richardson - The Evils of Divorce Referred to in Annual Charge

FREDERICKTON, N. B., Nov. 3.—The regular annual session of the Church of England Synod opened this morning at the Church Hall. There was a good attendance of both clergy and laymen. Prayers and roll call were read. His Lordship Bishop Richardson delivered his charge to the Synod. The charge was a lengthy one, as well as delivered before the Synod. His Lordship discussed several important subjects, including the need of money for missions, the death of members of the Synod, the widows and orphans fund, King's College, marriage and divorce and the temperance question.

Referring to departed members His Lordship said in part: "I have to mourn the loss of four members of the Synod, two priests and two lay delegates. David Wetmore, a faithful servant of the Church and to very many of us here a true and warm-hearted friend. First as a schoolmaster and later as a parish priest he won for himself a worthy name and gained the confidence of all who knew him. William Hunter was not as well known in the diocese as he came to it a stranger not many years ago. He lived and labored amongst us long enough, however, to make his memory a very sweet one and those who knew him regret his departure. The name of Daniel Hurd is well known to all here and all through the Church in Canada and will not be forgotten soon. A man of great physical and mental powers, he commanded ever-ready attention and respect and whether in the field of politics, in the arena of the law courts, or in the councils of the Church he was a man of weight and wisdom. For him devotion to the Church was no empty name. It was one of the principles of his life. An honored member of the Supreme Court of the province, his duties brought him very frequently to Fredericton, and every morning there saw him crossing the Atlantic close on his way to matins. In the first place, he gave himself ungrudgingly to the service of the Sunday School of the diocese. He was a man, take him for all in all, we shall not soon look upon his like again."

Hurd Peters was one of that band of earnest churchmen who from its first beginning were the mainstay of the Mission Church in this diocese. He was a man who was always to be found, and he was never so happy as when giving to it of his best. For many years he was a faithful member of the synod, and in committee and out of committee he gave the church splendid service. We gladly acknowledge and thank God for the strength and inspiration of his life.

All through the diocese the year has been one of progress, and from every standpoint I feel that the situation is brighter and better than it has been for many years. In the first place, we have been able to recoup a large number of vacant missionary fields. I feel that the church splendid service. We gladly acknowledge and thank God for the strength and inspiration of his life.

Rev. T. Albert Moore Declares C. P. R. Stopped Service on Branches on That Account—Protests from St. John Would Have Been Just as Effective—Work of the Lord's Day Alliance

A fair sized audience assembled in the parlors of Centenary Church last evening to hear Rev. T. Albert Moore, secretary of the Dominion Lord's Day Alliance, speak concerning the work and aims of the Alliance. Mr. Moore's address proved to be most interesting. He speaks in Truro today and will return here Friday to attend the annual meeting of the New Brunswick branch of the Lord's Day Alliance to be held in the Leinster Street Baptist Church. A. H. Hanington presided at the meeting.

In introducing the speaker, Mr. Hanington said that the Lord's Day Alliance had accomplished much but still must press on. Canada had become the envy of other lands as far as Sabbath observance was concerned, but much remained to be done. Sunday was used too much as a day of pleasure. One could realize that if he made a journey on the lower waters of the River St. John on a Sabbath afternoon by motor boat, yacht or other pleasure craft, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," says a section of the Lord's Day Act which is not forgotten. The churches should impress on those relieved of Sunday labor that the Sabbath was to be kept holy.

Mr. Moore was ready to do anything to give it its best support. For a similar reason I do not think that the province is ready yet for unlimited liquor and that I mean the principle of the liquor option applied indifferently. The experience of the past few years, however, has taught an excellent lesson. Local option is an excellent way of dealing with liquor districts. That does not, however, seem to be true of the larger towns and cities and for the reason I have indicated, public opinion in favor of the Scott Act is not yet strong enough to secure it adequate enforcement. And now out of all this let us come to the question that is before us. What can this Synod do? It can do at least these things, I hope.

1.—It can declare itself as being in favor of the ultimate abolition of the bar as a place of public drinking. Liquor could be lawfully sold only in sealed packages to be consumed away from the place of sale. The cost of that liquor is to be considered as a public utility. The effect of this change would be to eliminate many of the most disreputable dealers.

2.—We should further be able to agree that if intoxicating liquor is to be sold at all, it should be sold at a price higher than it is at present in New Brunswick. The effect of this change would be to eliminate many of the most disreputable dealers.

3.—There can be little doubt too, I think, that under our present license system the interests of morality demand a large reduction in the number of licenses granted in any given area. No one for example, who knows St. John, will seriously say that there are not too many places of public drinking.

4.—The Synod might well put itself on record as favoring the rigorous enforcement of all existing laws and only upon the members of the Church to throw the weight of their activities in that direction. The way in which the local authorities in certain parts of the province practically condone the deliberate infringement of the liquor laws by exacting a yearly tribute only, is nothing less than a disgrace. There is absolutely no excuse for this practice and I should welcome a clear condemnation of it by the Synod.

5.—There should, again, be no hesitation in expressing our opinion that the practice of public treating ought to be discouraged and condemned as dangerous.

6.—And lastly, I hope that the Synod will unite in commending the habit of total abstinence for the sake of others as a voluntary surrender of personal liberty completely in accord with the highest form of Christian character.

Resolutions were also passed by the Commission of the General Public Hospital and the Barristers' Society.

MR. MACLEOD'S WORK

ANTIGONISH MAN ON TRIAL FOR BOSTON MURDER

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Trial of Peter Delorey, aged 18, formerly of Antigonish, with her throat cut was found in the murder of Annie Mullins, a Newfoundland girl employed as maid by Prof. Von Jaggeman, of Harvard, was begun in Middlesex Superior Court, East Cambridge, today. The jury was selected, and the taking of evidence will begin tomorrow. Miss Mullins was found in the room of the East Cambridge, today. The case remained in deep mystery until a year later when Mrs. Francis Delorey, of West Billerica, aunt of young Delorey, told the authorities the young man told her they had seen the girl with her throat cut, the dates corresponding. Both men will claim an alibi. The motive of the crime was assault.

Speaking of a report that the Lord's Day Alliance had attempted to stop the Sunday delivery of milk at Cobalt, Mr. Moore said he had been informed by the officers of the Alliance that the story was absolutely false. In Montreal attention had been devoted to the moving picture shows running on Sunday. The managers had been fined $1,000, and the men were continuing at the rate of $500 to $2,000 a week. On the St. Croix River in New Brunswick, log-driving on Sunday had been stopped. On the Fredericton branch of the I. R. C. work train had gone out on Sunday. Subsequently the I. R. C. had promised never to do it again. Sunday excursions had been stopped. At Kentville, the D. A. R. had been warned not to do any Sunday work, and at Sydney the greater part of the Sunday work was lessened, and the Nova Scotia government had stepped in to further decrease it.

In closing his remarks, Mr. Moore said that he still works to do the work of the Lord's Day Alliance. He has been in the city for two months protesting from Fredericton, and he has been in the city for two months protesting from Fredericton, and he has been in the city for two months protesting from Fredericton.

SHOWED THEIR WISDOM

The framers of the Canadian constitution had provided that laws could be enacted for the observance of the Lord's Day and showed their wisdom. The Lord's Day Act had been harshly criticized, but Mr. Moore, he had never met one of the critics who had ever read the act. That act did not exactly suit him, but parliament and the Alliance had passed it. He

President Gomez Delivers Message to Congress—Surplus of $4,219,452 This Year

HAVANA, Nov. 3.—Congress opened today and the president's message was read. In it Gen. Gomez congratulated the country on the unprecedented sugar crop. He said that the best economic conditions prevailed and that there was complete security for life and property.

The tariffs that had been adopted by foreign countries, he said, necessitated a revision of the Cuban tariff so that countries selling much to Cuba, but buying little from her, would pay the maximum rates. Railway subsidies, measures for the promotion of immigration and the establishment of agrarian banks were needed. Trade treaties with Uruguay, Venezuela and Spain were in course of preparation.

In treating of the finances of the country President Gomez said that the cash on hand on January 28, 1909, was $2,685,228.74. The amount collected to September 30 was $2,489,353.86. The amount expended was $7,089,383.32, leaving a balance of $1,085,209.28. The vative paper for weeks charged that the government was using coercion and intimidation, there was no disorder.
