The Beston Pleasure Trip. will be required, and to prepare for the comfort

A Southern paper in the Slave interest think that society is running to seed in the Northern tailors in New York have been holding meetings and talking all sorts of balderdash is the Socia iat style. The Southern thinks that in somewhat less than a century, " if we furnish ountiful tariffe," New England will be a hoge Manchester, full of all sorts of moral, mental and tion ; and New York and the rest of the large cities no better than London. Now that there is a good deal of evil-moral, mental and physical-in London, Manchester and other English cities, we do not dispute ; so is there in Paris, Vienna and Berlin, and so is there in New York, now, if we believe the journal sts of that city, and so there ever must be in every large congregation of men within a comparatively narrow space. But we also do believe that in London and Manchester, and all English cities, and in New York and Boston, and we hope in the continental cities also, the good docs far outweigh the bad, and we see every day as society improves in knowledge that every exertion is made to rescue the lowest of the lower classes from moral, mental, and physical, degradation. More has been done in this way in London in the last five, than in the fifty previous years. But while admitting that there is in all these cities a vast amount o crime, suffering and poverty, the inhabitants of all of them may proudly lift up their heads and thank God that in none of them does there exist a public market in which the " Image of God," man, woman and child, is bought and sold like a dogthat in them human beings are not bred for sale I ke cattle—that there no man is permitted of his own mere motion to flog, maim, fetter, and torture his fellow man, merely because he has a black

Neither can we see how "High Tariffa" can operate in bringing American laborers to the ion in the manufacturing States of the Union has invariably improved under a High Tariff. We will instance the Tariff of '42-when that came into operation, business and labor at the North were in the lowest state of depression Both continued to improve steadily till '46, in which year there was hardly a person in the New States that was not emplayed at good wages. But the Free-Trade apor to get the upper hand in the United States, as they ne in England, and the consequence is, industrial classes in the large cities are working at starvation prices. The country has been dooded with importations of cheap Euroeds, which have been forced upon the stocked, and, consequently, the price of labor has fallen. This is the simple explanation of the matter, and should be a lesson to the advecates of Mr. Assistant Commissioner Bourret is new in Quebec, and is to be followed in a few days by Mr. Chief Commissioner Merritt. We understand that these officials are about to visit the Temiscouats Portage, and Trois Pistoles and Madawaska Rivers. It is proposed here to form a Canal, by which the St. Lawrence and St. John Rivers will be connected, thus giving an uninterruped inland water communication between the importance of which it is impossible to overestimate. We presume that New Brunswick will hear her share with Canada in this expense, and we have sufficient faith in Mr. Merritt's capacity for business of this sort, to believe that he will take care the work is properly constructed.
