GRACE CHURCH YOUNG PEOPLE

—REV. POTTS HONORED—

HOLD A SPLENDID BANQUET

Annual Affair Last Evening Eclipsed Former Efforts of the Progressive A.Y.P.A. of the Church--Addresses By the Officers.

Numerous banquets held by the Grace Church Anglican Young People's Association have proved a splendid success, but the banquet held last evening in the school room totally eclipsed all previous affairs of this nature. From the very moment entering the school room a pleasant time was spent. Be it known the fare of the Grace church young people to provide a pleasant time had gone out and consequently there were quite a number of visitors. Many from the associations throughout the city and from Paris. The capacity of the room was just sufficient, that was all to accommodate the banquet. There were many features of the evening among them being the presentation of the association of a beautiful reading lamp to Rev. J. C. Potts, curate of the church who will leave in the not distant future for Clinton, and the presentation to the wardens of a large photograph of Archdeacon Mackenzie, the rector of Grace church and the highly esteemed and honored leader of the Anglicans of Brantford, one who has reached the age seventy-seven years with a record of having spent thirty five years in this city as rector of the church he now serves.

For the splendid occasion the school room had been decorated, the decorations bearing evidence of much good taste. The color scheme was red, white and blue. From the centre of the ceiling hung a large union jack and from the flag streamers ran to different points along the walls were tastefully arranged smaller flags and on the window curtains were draped streamers of carnations and roses. Large union jacks were on either side of the platform and another was draped over the arch. Above the platform were the words: "Grace Church A.Y.P.A. Our motto: For Christ and the Church." On the tables which had been tastefully laid were vases of flowers.

To the ladies who provided the banquet the heartiest of congratulations are in order and especially to Mrs. King who had this portion of the affair in charge.

The good things well and truly disposed of, Archdeacon Mackenzie, who presided as toast master offered the toast of the "King" which was honored by singing, The National Anthem.

The Archdeacon in his address extended a welcome to all. While he welcomed the A.Y.P.A. members and the members of the church, he extended a special welcome to a splendid photograph of Archdeacon Mackenzie, the rector of Grace church and the highly esteemed and honored leader of the Anglicans of Brantford, one who has reached the age seventy-seven years with a record of having spent thirty five years in this city as rector of the church he now serves.

well. This latter comment was productive of hearty applause.

As the programme was a lengthy one the banqueters were asked to refrain from demanding encores.

The first number on the programme was a solo by Mr. R. G. Lamb of Trinity church, Eagle Place. Mr. Lamb who is a Scotchman appeared in costume and sang "By Yon Bonnie Banks" as only a Scotchman can sing it.

This pleasing number was followed by a reading by Miss Christine Davis. Shopping experiences in a large store were humorously presented.

The toastmaster offered the toast to the church, which was spoken to by Mr. A. K. Bunnell. In proposing the toast he stated that the Church of England required no introduction. The audience before him fully demonstrated the faith in the English church. Mr. Bunnell much regretted that the pews of the church were not filled on Sundays. He much wanted the banqueters to realize the part of the association in this regard. Speaking of the association, Mr. Bunnell said he was loved by all.

Mr. Fred W. Frank replying to the toast said that it was a mistaken idea that there was not a welcome extended to the church services. Mention had been made of the fellowship existing in the A.Y.P.A., and this caused Mr. Frank to state that a pat on the back was required as a well-earned reward for the need of children being brought up to respect the church and have their lesson prepared on Sunday. As there was a movement underway to change the prayer book, Mr. Frank took occasion to state that he did not want to see the book altered.

Before calling on Mayor Spence, the Archdeacon said that when he came to Brantford 35 years ago, there were only two Anglican churches and there were now seven, all well manned.

Mayor Spence congratulated the A.Y.P.A. upon providing such an excellent banquet. Speaking of Grace church he said it had opened in 1832 and had only been under church might be proud of. Grace church was the daughter of the old Mohawk church. From Grace, St. Jude's, of which he was a member, had sprung, and under the supervision of St. Jude's there were now three congregations. The members of the Church of England should feel proud of what the church had accomplished. There was a time when a member of the Church of England was a stranger; now the member was one of many.

Presentation to Rev. Mr. Potts. The presentation to Rev. Mr. Potts followed Mayor Spence's address. The address was read by the president of the association, Mr. F. W. Myring, and the presentation made by Miss Dora Ginn, secretary of the association.

The address is here given:

To the Rev. J. C. Potts, Curate of Grace Church, Brantford.

Dear Sir--We, the members of the Anglican Young People's Association, of Grace Church, having learned of your intended departure from our midst, wish to express our deep regret.

Since you came among us, two years ago, we have found you to be in the truest sense of the word, a friend. As a clergyman, most faithful, particularly among the poor, the friendless and the unfortunate. Your weekly visits to the hospital have endeared you to a host of people; and we feel sure that the success of the A.Y.P.A. has to a large degree been due to your untiring effort. Your addresses to us have been beneficial; your companionship most congenial. You have always been willing to play the part of an elder brother, and we feel sure we but voice the sentiments of many citizens in Brantford, when we say we are very sorry to lose you; but our loss is some one else's gain.

We wish you every success in your new parish and pray that God's richest blessing may rest upon your labors. As a token of our appreciation, hoping you will find it useful in shedding light on many subjects, and that it will ever remind you of the many friends you left behind in Grace Church, Brantford, we ask you to accept this lamp.

Signed on behalf of the A.Y.P.A. by the executive: Wm. F. Myring, president; Ernest Goldstraw, vice-president; Dora B. Ginn, secretary; Alford H. Stevens, Treasurer.

Rev. Mr. Potts in replying said that the interchange with the A.Y.P.A. had been pleasant from the beginning. In leaving Brantford he felt that he was leaving friends, and it was not easy to leave friends. The A.Y.P.A. had been a source of gratification and encouragement to him. Speaking of the attendance at the Sunday school services he said that the A.Y.P.A. was well represented, and owing to the members being employed during the week, it meant a sacrifice to attend morning service. Referring to work which had been done at the hospital, Rev. Mr. Potts said that to do this work it meant sacrifice on the part of the members. They had been able to assist him. In conclusion he quoted the words spoken by Christ: "For inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me," and thanked the association for the gift.

Archdeacon Mackenzie took occasion to state that when he had a good time he was taken away from him. The Bishop was responsible in this instance. In speaking of Rev. Mr. Potts the Bishop had said: "I think that man has a future." The Archdeacon expressed regret at Rev. Mr. Potts departure.

A piano solo by Miss Edna Buchanan, a reading by Mr. R. T. Hall, and a solo by Mr. James T. Whitaker were well received.

The toast to the A.Y.P.A. followed. The evening was full of surprises, and what was to follow was one of them. After speaking highly of the work of Mrs. King, who had charge of the providing of the banquet, President Myring, moved the covering over the picture of Archdeacon Mackenzie and asked Mr. Frank to accept it on behalf of the wardens. Applause resigned supreme for a few minutes.

Mr. Myring touched upon the activity of the A.Y.P.A. in the city and the Dominion. He emphasized the need of a parish house and stated that the association had decided to give $500 towards the Sunday school improvements.

Mr. Frank thanked the A.Y.P.A. on behalf of the wardens.

A solo was rendered by Mr. E. Roberts in good voice and Mayor Spence spoke to the toast of the ladies, to which all responded.

Rev. Mr. Bryce of London, who was present addressed the banqueters briefly and the affair which had proved so pleasant through the untiring efforts of many was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

City News Items

Judgment Reserved.
Last evening before His Honor, Judge Hardy, Judgment was reserved for the loss of a horse, resulting from injuries received, it was alleged through the neglect of the city.

No Crooked Poles.
No corporation will be allowed to place crooked poles upon the streets of this city. The G. N. W. Telegraph company is substituting new poles for the old ones on Market and Dalhousie Streets. It came to the notice of Ald. Ryerson and Fire Chief Lewis that some of the poles about to be placed, were crooked, the company was interviewed in the matter and a promise secured that the crooked poles would not be put up. Should any attempt be made to put the crooked poles in place the police have instructions to take action.

At the Colonial.
The Colonial Theatre is playing to packed houses the first three days of this week, where a bill something above the ordinary is being presented. Cogan and Gilman got away with some very good songs and chatter and their roller skating offering was excellent. Clark and Temple in a song and talking act are fully up to par both possessing excellent. Pero and Wilson can not easily be beaten and their songs are well given. Several excellent photo plays are presented, including a two-reel Victor feature film, "The Spender," which is intensely interesting as is also, "The Child Thieves of Paris."

Women's Institute.
A largely attended meeting under the auspices of the Woman's Institute held at the home of Mrs. James Sumner on Thursday afternoon to hear the government delegate, Miss Robson, who gave a very instructive and helpful talk on the "Economic Problems of the Country Girl." The large numbers of ladies present were greatly interested in the many phases of rural life, which the speaker portrayed as ideal. Mrs. J. J. Hurley, who was present, was asked to preside, and opened the meeting with a short talk on the great benefits and advantages of the Women's Institute. Miss Mary Jorie Sumner, delighted all present with her piano solo, Miss Grace Benson gave a very amusing recitation, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The hostess served dainty refreshments, and the meeting was closed with God Save the King.

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" best for tender stomach, liver bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the dose mother insisted on--castor oil, calomel, castorics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them. With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them. If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach; and that a teaspoonful given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Ask your druggist for a 30-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Five Years

Charles Connois is Sentenced at Hamilton.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]
HAMILTON, Ont., Feb. 4.—Charles Connois, 35 years of age, a criminal with a long record of convictions, was sentenced to five years, and his wife, Thomas Kelly, 24 years, who also has a bad record, to a year in Kingston to-day. The men were arrested at Detroit where they fled after robbing the store of the Dominion House Furniture Company, getting away with several hundred dollars worth of goods. Connois' wife, who has shielded him during his long criminal career, collapsed when she heard the sentence. Connois was once charged with attempting to murder her in Ottawa, and only recently he was in court charged with assaulting her, but she refused to prosecute.

LOOKS LIKE BERLIN.
BERLIN, Feb. 4.—That the final game for the group championship between the local intermediates and Preston has become a very interesting event is shown by the fact that no reserve seats could be secured last night. With the Berlins playing on their own ice to-night, after holding Preston to a four goal tie in the latter town on Monday, they have the edge on the visitors.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-Time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grand mother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded, streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by using any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Weyl's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" you will get the famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally, and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dip a sponge or soft brush into the bottle and draw this through your hair, using one strand at a time. By using the gray hair disappears, and after another application of the remedy becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant. Agent T. George Bowles.

All Bewitched Spell is Broken By White W

LONDON, Feb. 3.—How in Dorchester were "bewitched" how they broke the spell by ing a "white witch," is told Dorset County Chronicle.

The scene of the "bewitching" the village of Higher Bockhampton, the "Upper Molestock" of Mr. Hardy's Wessex novels, where Hardy himself was born. In the cottage next to Mr. birthplace lived, until a week ago, a carter, with his wife and a daughter, and a young man, the girl's sweetheart.

The girl became ill and a doctor was consulted. She became hysterical, and screamed, struggled, when her sweethearts asked to find lodgings elsewhere. Her elder sister, Sarah, who was some way off, was fetched to soothe and nurse her.
